

THE RUSSIANS DRIVEN BACK; MAY RETIRE TO LIAO YANG

Defeated in an All Day Battle on Sunday—Heavy Fighting Near New Chwang.

RUSSIANS CLAIM TO HAVE RECAPTURED KAI CHOU

New Chwang, July 25.—A battle took place yesterday (Sunday) east of Tche Kiao, which resulted in the Russians being driven back, and it is believed they will have to retire to Liao Yang. The battle lasted all day.

Chicago, July 23.—A special cablegram to the Daily News from Nagasaki, Japan, says: Dispatches from Omura state that the strong Russian position at Shinou, ten miles east of Liao Yang, was captured by the Japanese troops July 19. The Mikado's army lost 250 men in the attack.

Tien Tsin, July 25.—In accordance with orders issued by General Kuropatkin, the Russians commenced to evacuate New Chwang yesterday (Sunday). This morning the Russian railway station is in flames. The Russians are evidently desirous of their property previous to evacuation.

New Chwang, July 24.—A battle was fought yesterday (Saturday), near Tche Kiao, attended, it is believed, with heavy losses. The progress of the battle was watched by many people in New Chwang from the roofs of the houses. The day was clear and the smoke of the guns could be plainly seen.

Tien Tsin, July 24.—A report from New Chwang states that yesterday's battle was at Ta Hsu Tung, six miles distant, and that the Japanese were successful. Many Chinese refugees arriving at New Chwang reported that nine Japanese gunboats from Port Arthur have arrived at Tsin Tsin Shan.

Paris, July 24.—The correspondent of the Matin at Yin Kow says a violent cannonade, lasting several hours, was heard to the northward of Kai Chau on July 22. The roofs of the houses in New Chwang were crowded with Europeans and Chinese looking toward Kai Chau on July 21, and say the fight reported was the result of the Japanese resuming the offensive.

Tien Tsin, July 24.—News has reached here that a battle is being fought outside of New Chwang. The fighting can be seen from the house tops. In the engagement of yesterday the Russian losses are reported to have been 700. The Japanese are slowly nearing New Chwang. Great excitement prevailed in that city during today's and yesterday's fights.

New Chwang Evacuated.

Washington, July 25.—Minister Conger at Peking has cabled the state department until today's dispatch that the Russians have evacuated New Chwang. He also confirms the published reports of the sinking by the Vladivostok squadron of a British steamer with a cargo consigned to the American Trading Company.

Tien Tsin, July 25.—Information has been received here to the effect that the Japanese have not entered New Chwang. The Russian civil administration departed last night (Sunday), and the destruction of Russian goods and the evacuation of the morning commenced. The fighting reported yesterday took place between New Chwang and Tche Kiao, and Japanese from Kiao Chau were engaged.

A Counter Attack.

St. Petersburg, July 24, 4 a.m.—A badly mutilated dispatch from Tche Kiao, dated July 20, which has been received here, indicates that an engagement of some importance had occurred on the sea coast. The dispatch states that the Russians made a night attack on a fortified Japanese camp at Sangsue, on the sea coast north of Kai Chau. They got within close range, and opened fire on the camp before they were discovered, forcing the retirement of the Japanese toward Kai Chau.

Here a portion of the dispatch is missing. Apparently the attacks were enveloped by a counter Japanese movement, probably by troops from some neighboring position, for this whole region is strongly fortified, and the Russian detachment was in danger of being cut off and annihilated. The message continues with the saying that when the Russians had given themselves up for lost, a welcome diversion was created in their rear by Cyprian Rotovskoy, in command of three companies of Russian troops, who threw his force into the fight. Cossack companies also joined the battle. The message continues as follows:

RUNAWAY TRAIN ON DOWN GRADE; PULLS UP ON OWEN SOUND DOCKS

Loaded With Marl It Refuses to Respond to the Air Brakes—Nobody Hurt.

Owen Sound, July 24.—A wreck in the Grand Trunk yards at 12:30 yesterday afternoon was the culmination of a most thrilling experience. The excitement commenced at Ben Allen, seven miles out, when Engineer Henry Brown of Palmerston, discovered that the speed of the marl train which he was hauling was getting greater as they went down the grade. He whistled for brakes, but the train kept moving faster and faster. He repeatedly whistled, until finally the signal could be heard from the local yards. As the train approached the yards at a high rate of speed, he reversed the engine, but the immense weight of the

STAMPEDE AT BULL-LION FIGHT

Animals Turn on Spectators and Attendants Shoot Into the Crowd.

San Sebastian, Spain, July 25.—There was a sensational scene in the bull ring here yesterday. At the moment of the projected fight between a bull and a lion both animals broke loose and stampeded the spectators. The attendants, in firing on the animals, struck and wounded several of those present, including the Marquis Pedal, the vice-president of the senate, the Marquis Oajio and a French tourist.

Sinks One of the Former, Bound From New York to Singapore—Jap Schooners Caught.

Yokohama, July 25.—The Vladivostok squadron yesterday sunk the American steamer Knight, bound from New York to the Province of Izumi, after transferring the crew of the Knight Commander to the steamer Tsushima, which arrived here this morning.

The Vladivostok squadron also captured a German vessel bound to Arabia with three thousand tons of flour, and an unknown British steamer. The two vessels were sent to Vladivostok in charge of prize crews.

The American Trading Company are the agents for the Knight Commander, New York, July 25.—The Knight Commander, sunk by the Vladivostok squadron yesterday, according to the Maritime Register, is a British steamer of 2,734 tons, built at Newcastle, Capt. Durand, she sailed from New York, May 6, for Singapore. On June 23 she was loaded and last week was reported as having arrived at Shanghai.

The owner of the Knight Commander is the Knight Steamship Company Limited, of Liverpool. She was built at Newcastle by the Palmers. The British steamer Chinan has arrived at Yokohama with the crew of the British steamer Knight Commander, which was sunk by the Russian Vladivostok

WILSON BARRETT BURIED The Famous Actor Laid in His Last Resting Place.

Clarens, Switzerland, July 25.—The body of the late President Kruger was placed on board a train today for The Hague. The funeral car was decorated with flags and flowers and the coffin was covered with the flag of the late Transvaal Republic.

JAPAN AND SEIZURES Tokio Editors Think Peace of the World Is Imperiled.

Tokio, July 25.—The passage of the Dardanelles by the Russian volunteer fleet steamers, the seizure of German vessels and the capture in the Red Sea by Russia of the P. and O. steamer Malacca, have attracted great attention throughout Japan. The Government is watching the situation keenly, but it has not given any form of expression to its views or indication that it will take action in the matter. The editors of Tokio newspapers have met and passed a resolution declaring that the passage of the Dardanelles by the Russian ships is a violation of the treaty obligations and an insult to all of the powers; that the seizure of ships by the Russian volunteer fleet jeopardizes the interests of all neutral powers and that Russia's action endangers the peace of the world.

A BISHOP MURDERED Roman Catholic Missionaries Killed in China.

London, July 25.—The Times today has the following from Shanghai: The Belgian consul at Shanghai telegraphs that the Roman Catholic Bishop Verhaeghen and his brother, belonging to the Belgian mission in Hupeh Province, have been murdered in a small town, inland, and north of Ichang. Father Robberecht of the same mission was also killed last Tuesday near Chienan. It is not stated whether the outrages were committed by rioters or bandits. Bishop Verhaeghen, though only 36 years of age, had earned the esteem of Europeans and Chinese alike by his distinguished scholarship and sympathetic personality. By reason of France's ecclesiastical protectorate the investigation and settlement of the matter devolves upon the French authorities.

DUEL TO THE DEATH. Trinidad, Colo., July 25.—Word has been received here that two guards employed by the Victor Fuel Company at Hastings, became involved in a quarrel and decided to fight a duel. When the guns were emptied the two men drew knives and fought until both were killed.

A Cut in Dividends. Montreal, July 25.—The Laurentide Paper Company, of which Sir William VanHorne is president, has made a cut in its dividend from 8 per cent per annum to 6 per cent, as indicated by the dividend announcement for the first half of this year. In 1900 the company paid 10 per cent, but for the three following years the rate was 8 per cent. The stock has not been an active feature of the trading on the market, and the price from 95 last year, declined to 74½ during the first half of the current year.

SAVES LIVES OF TWO UNDER CARS Loaded Shot For A BRITISH SHIP

Surgeon Amputates a Boy's Leg Under Trolley. S. S. Andova Seized by the Russians in Red Sea.

PREVENTS BLEEDING TO DEATH Next Finds a Girl Beneath Car, and Duplicates Act of Thirty Minutes Before.

New York, July 25.—Ambulance Surgeon Joseph Samenfild, of St. Catharines Hospital, Brooklyn, who two weeks ago won praise by crawling under a street car and amputating the leg of a little girl who had been pinned under the trucks, thereby saving her life, duplicated his feat twice within a half-hour last night, saving the lives of both unfortunate.

Isaac Wilkinskie, 4 years old, was the first. At 8 o'clock the boy was playing in the street in front of his parents' home, No. 365 Rushwick avenue, Brooklyn. He started to run across the street just as a street car passed, and he was rolled under the car. His mother was not twenty feet from him, but she could not save him. A great crowd surrounded the car, and made a demonstration against the motorman, believing that the little boy was crushed to death, for he lay under the front truck, unable to move. While wrecking crews were at work with jacks raising the car to release the little body the police sent in a hurry call for an ambulance.

Dr. Samenfild arrived ten minutes later. The car was just being raised, and the surgeon, without waiting for the unconscious form of the boy to be drawn out, crawled under the car platform with his medicine case. He found that the little body had cleared the truck almost miraculously, but that the wheel had crushed the left leg shapeless. It was a question of minutes when the boy would die from loss of blood, and the surgeon, without hesitating, cut the leg off at the hip. He then went back for his instruments, stripped off his coat, and with the pavement as an operating table, he amputated the limb, ligatured and bandaged it.

Then he carried the boy to the ambulance and hurried off at full speed to the hospital. The amputation had been done so neatly that the boy's life was saved.

Dr. Samenfild was making out his report when in came a second ambulance call. It was from the corner of Johnson avenue and Leonard street. There, 2-year-old Bertha Signosse, whose parents are at the corner of Johnson and Leonard streets, had been thrown down, while the heavy wheels of the truck passed over her left leg, crushing it and holding her fast.

The same scenes were repeated by the crowd in the gay way as the white-coated ambulance surgeon rushed up with his case of instruments. He knelt down and saw that the boy was weak and dying from loss of blood. "The jacks will be here in a minute and we can release her," said the conductor of the car.

"There is not a moment to lose to save her life," said the doctor. Again he got out his instruments and he severed the limb where the wheels had crushed it, freeing the girl. Again he ligatured and bound the wound on the street, while the crowd watched in silence.

"Will she live, doctor?" they asked him. "Yes," he said, as he hurried off. The crowd cheered him, not knowing that it was his second brave feat within the short space of half an hour.

PETER PATTERSON DEAD Was at One Time Member for East York in Legislature.

Woodstock, Ont., July 25.—Peter Patterson, ex-M. P. of this city, died at his summer home, near Patterson, last night, as the result of four days' illness from an accident sustained by falling from a ladder. He was 80 years of age, and up to ten years ago was head of the firm of Patterson, Macdonald and the Massey-Harris Company in 1896. For twelve years he represented the East York constituency in the Ontario Legislature.

Acquitted of Treason Koenigsberg, Prussia, July 25.—All the accused in the trial for high treason and conspiracy against the Russian Emperor were acquitted today of treason, but were sentenced to short terms of imprisonment.

30000 OUT AT FALL RIVER, MASS. Giant Strike of Mill Operatives Making a Bid for Wine and Salt Business—New Discovery at Capital.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Ottawa, July 25.—Commercial Agent Ross, Australia, writes the trades and commerce department that the wife of an inter-continental trader in Australia is after the wine trade in Canada. They intend sending an exhibit to the Toronto Exhibition. Australians are also after the salt trade, with British Columbia, and have a consignment of 200 tons booked to reach Vancouver next month. Mr. Ross says that the placing of the Manuka on the Vancouver line reduces the distance between Brisbane and London to 29 or 30 days.

VOLUNTEER FLEET ORDERED HOME.

St. Petersburg, July 25.—The Associated Press is informed that the Russian volunteer fleet steamers Smolensk and St. Petersburg have already been ordered home, and that instructions for them to return have been cabled. The assurances given Great Britain on this point are declared to be satisfactory.

The instructions given the commanders of vessels repeat the order heretofore announced in the Associated Press dispatches, directing them to refrain from further attempts to stop merchantmen, either in the Red Sea or the Mediterranean.

The decision not to insist on the war status of the ships was probably reached at the conference on Saturday. The two ships may be brought to the Baltic and formally recommissioned.

Russia has reiterated her assurances that all vessels seized pending the receipt of instructions from the captains of the Smolensk and St. Petersburg shall at once be released, and the British steamer Andova will be freed upon her arrival at Suez and Port Said, the same as the Scandia.

CANADA PROUD OF PTE. PERRY, LEW SCHOLES AND MAJ. HOWARD

Successes of Our Boys at Bisley and Henley Discussed in the House.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Ottawa, Ont., July 25.—Sir Frederick Borden took occasion when the House met today to draw attention to the honor won by Pte. Perry, of the Sixth Duke of Connaught Regiment, Vancouver, in gaining the King's prize at Bisley, and Col. Hughes, of the same regiment, in winning the King's prize at Henley. Mr. MacLean said that Len Scholes, of Toronto, had proved himself the best marksman of the world, which was another honor to Canada.

KRUGER LEFT $5,000,000 Ex-President of Transvaal Had a Comfortable Fortune.

London, Monday, July 25.—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Geneva says it is learned from a trustworthy source that the fortune of the late President Kruger, the late president of the Transvaal, is between £750,000 and £1,000,000. It consists chiefly of European securities. The bulk of it goes to the Eloff family.

PROROGATION PROSPECTS Another Fortnight May See an End to This Session.

Ottawa, July 25.—Prospects for prorogation are still indefinite, though the more optimistic say that "two weeks should see the House prorogued." As nobody is bound or considers himself bound by any arrangement so far made, it is impossible to say if a fortnight will really see the end. There are a number of Government bills still on the order paper, the most important of which are the amendments to the naval militia bill. The discussion on the other bills has been pretty generally postponed.

BIG SYMPATHETIC STRIKE DECLARED

Allied Trades in Chicago Stockyards Walk Out to Help the Butchers.

Chicago, July 25.—The long-threatened general strike of miscellaneous trades at the stockyards, called to assist the butchers' workmen, began today about 9 o'clock with the walk-out of nearly all the machinists, car workers, employed by the seven big packers. This was done without awaiting the result of the conference between the packers and officials of the teamsters, nor of the meeting of the joint trades being held in the offices of the packing house teamsters' union.

Business agents of the unions went among the members employed at each of the packers, announcing that the big sympathetic strike order was in effect. All the big plants in the yards were reported as killing cattle, sheep and hogs today. Swift & Co., it was asserted, killing 700 cattle, 1,000 hogs and 9,000 sheep, and others about the same. The receipts for the day were 5,000 cattle, 5,000 hogs and 8,000 sheep, or about 15 per cent of the normal run.
