THE ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1904.

PRICE TWO CENTS.

MUST PROVE CASE PRODUCING "PHANTOMS"

All England Is Confident That the Inquiry Uphold British Contention.

BRITISH WARSHIPS WATCHING THE BALTIC FLEET Demonstration for R. F. Sutherland

tion at the fact that an arrangement Diana. has been reached and entire certainty Invited to Inquiry. that the result of the commission of in-North Sea fishing fleet marks the com- cident. ments of the London afternoon newssentations to Russia in the case of the papers almost universally. The admir- German fishing vessel Sonntag, fired on al's story, it is pointed out, has the by Russian warships, Oct. 21, off Horns great advantage that it is capable of Reef. precise proof or disproof. "The Russian admiral can only make good his case by producing the vessel whose Jap Naval Officer Offers Motive for presence he alleges was among the trawlers," says the Westminster Gazette. "This feeling that the British contention will be upheld pervades all classes and disposes the public to calm-

To Inquire Only. The Hague, Oct. 29. - The officials of

THE COMMISSION.

The composition of the internapassing between St. Petersburg gested that it shall be comprised of five admirals. French. Russian and English, and two from smaller powers, possibly Denmark and Holland, to be nominated by their respective Govern-Nothing yet, however has definitely been decided. No American member has been sugppening in the proposal that one law jurist from a neutral power

Thus far no time limit has been fixed for the end of the inquiry. After fuller communication with St. Petersburg, it now understood, upon conclusion of the inquiry now proceeding at Vigo all the Russian ships will be allowed to proceed, only the material witnesses being dethe purpose of investigating the North break of the war. Sea incident will be purely a commission of inquiry without any power to act as arbitrator.

Watching the Russians.

Gibraltar, Oct. 29. - The British battleships Jupiter and Magnificent sailed from here today, going westwards. Their destination is believed to be

The British second-class cruiser Do-

CRUISERS REACH TANGIER

Section of the Baltic Squadron Japanese

Enters Moroccan Port. Tangier, Morocco, Oct. 29. - Four Russian cruisers, three torpedo boat

London, Oct. 29. - Profound satisfac- cruiser Kleber and the British cruiser, quiry will be to discredit Vice-Admiral St. Petersburg, Oct. 25.

Great Britain has invited Russia to Great Britain has invited Russia to Rojestvensky's statements anent the be represented in the board of trade largest Liberal demonstration ever presence of torpedo boats among the inquiry at Hull into the North Sea in-

WANTED AN EXCUSE.

Outrage.

Tokio, Oct. 29.-Noon,-A prominent ly await the verdict. Trading on the officer on the Japanese naval staff said stock exchange opened buoyantly, and today that he believed the Russian Balprices considerably advanced all tic fleet would not come far on their way east. He did not believe that the Russian Government desires to send it at all, and it was likely that the trawler affair in the North Sea would be used as an excuse for the recall of the the court of arbitration indorse the fleet. Instancing reasons upon which he view voiced by Premier Balfour at based his belief, he says, that the fleet based his belief, he says, that the fleet Southampton, England, last night, that commander, Admiral Rojestvensky under the term of The Hague conven- was sick when he left port, and it tion the commission to be appointed for seemed very improbable that the Russian Government, if their intentions > among the trawling fleet which was report current in Ottawa, but Mr.Blair fired upon by the fleet, it was the duty himself will not confirm the report, of the Russian officer in command," he neither does he make any denial. said, "to pursue them, and investigate critical, to afford a plausible excuse to recall its fleet."

Japanese Derisive. Tokio, Oct. 29, 2:30 p.m. - The reander III., with the Russian Baltic squadron now at Vigo, Spain, to the effect that there were foreign torpedo boats among the Hull trawlers when they were fired upon recently by the Russian warships, and that the Japanese Government was said to have purchased torpedo boats in England, coupled with the insinuation that the torpedo hoats with the trawlers were Japanese, has been received in Japan with a mixed feeling of indignation and derision. It is officially declared in the most positive terms that Japan has neither purchased nor ordered a single tornedo boat in England since the out-

ROJESTVENSKY'S NIGHTMARE One of His Officers Says There Were

Eight of Enemy. Vigo, Spain, Oct. 29.—The Russian squadron is still in port. Upon the main question relative to the identity of the Japanese torpedo boats said to have been seen among the Hull fishing ris, which has been patrolling the fleet during the night of Oct. 21-22 straits, also sailed westwards, after Vice-Admiral Rojestvensky said to the communicating with the flagship of Associated Press today: "Rumors had Vice-Admiral Lord Charles Beresford, reached me that the Japanese would the commander of the Channel squad- attack the squadron, and when I suddenly saw that night the two torpedo boats between our two divisions and heard the noise of the firing of torpedoes I doubted not that they were Prince Keretelli, an officer on board the battleship Emperor Alexander III.. told me that the transport Areadaur was surrounded by eight torpedo boats or vessels carrying torpedo tubes. The Areadaur signaled her destroyers and five colliers, arrived when our battleships advanced we did here this morning. The Russian flag- not for one moment suppose that the ship exchanged salutes with the French attacking vessels could be fishermen DOUBLE TRAGEDY ALEXIEFF'S FALL BY STRAY BULLET

Causes Her Friend to Drop Dead. Crestline, Ohio, Oct. 29. - A stray bullet from a revolver fired by Wm Heffelfinger, formally a merchant of this city, resulted in the death of the women last night. The bullet we women last night. fired to frighten two companions Heffelfinger, who were escorting home, The bullet went wild and str Mrs. Harry Kimley, the wife of a Cle and man, who was visiting at Crestline home, in the head. She within a few minutes.

Heffelfinger was locked up.

IT GLITTERS-IS IT GOLD? his services.

Mrs. Carrie Shafer, on learning of t tragedy fell dead from hear disease

Essex County Farmer Believes He's

Struck It Rich. Windsor, Ont., Oct. 29. - Patric

Major was boring for either of these made to Washington products and struck a hard vein of

Kills One Woman, and the News His Recall to St. Petersburg Is casionally occurs. Permanent, the Czar Being

Displeased. Che Foo, Oct. 29.-Advices received here from Harbin say that Viceroy Alexieff and his entire staff will leave Harbin tomorrow. They expect to arrive in St. Petersburg Nov. 14. The Russian consul here says Alexieff's recall is due to the need of his advice in framing new plans for the Manchurian campaign. Other Russians, including one official, confirm the reports from other quarters that Alexieff's recall is permanent and that it

Trouble for the Kaiser. Aurora, Ill., Oct. 29. - Friends of retary, speaking at the Manchester

RESIGNATION ACCEPTED

Cabinet at Montreal Accepts Hon. Mr. Blair's Resignation.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 29.-A private teletreal says that Mr. Blair's resignation as chairman of the railway commission and member of the railway board has been accepted at a meeting of the cabinet held here.

BROKE THE RECORD

Was Walkerville's Biggest.

Walkerville, Ont., Oct. 29. - R. F. Sutherland, K.C., M. P., spoke here last night. Thomas Reid, ex-mayor of the town, occupied the chair, and introduced the speaker. Dr. Samson also addressed the meeting, which was the

PAULINE ASTOR WEDS

Daughter of W. W. Astor Married to Capt. Spender-Clay.

London, Oct. 29.-Miss Pauline Astor, was married at St. Margaret's Church. Westminster, shortly after 2 o'clock this afternoon, to Captain Spender Clay. The Bishop of London, Dr. Ingram, Canon Wilberforce and other presence of a very large congregation. THE MYSTERY SOLVED?

clergy performed the ceremony in the

Mr. Blair To Go Into a Partnership With His Son.

were serious, would send a sick admiral to navigate many thousands of miles to combat a superior force at the end of a long cruise.

"If there were any torpedo boats among the trawling fleet which was a mong to fattern from Mr. Murray's experience, and the arose to speak. He began by alluding to the arduousness of the cambridge from the time he was a member of the secret service force of the United States are taken from Mr. Murray's experience, and the arose to speak. He began by alluding to the arduousness of the cambridge from the time he was a member of the secret service force of the United States are taken from Mr. Murray's experience, and the arose to speak. He began by alluding to the arduousness of the cambridge from the time he was a member of the secret service force of the United States are taken from Mr. Murray's experience, and the arose to speak the began by alluding to the arduousness of the cambridge from the time he was a member of the secret service force of the United States are taken from Mr. Murray's experience, and the arose to speak the began by alluding to the arduousness of the cambridge from Mr. Murray's experience, and the arose to speak the began by alluding to the arduousness of the cambridge from the time he was a member of the arose to speak the began by alluding to the arose to speak the began by alluding to the arose to speak the began by allu Ottawa, Oct. 29.-Mr. Blair will take the base of their dispatch, Russia by delay, was seeking to render the diplomatic situation with England more RUSS GUNS SFARCH JAPANESE LINES

ported statement of an officer on board the Russian battleship Emperor Alex- Mikado's Artillery Silent in Face of Shelling.

Oct 27 Confirmed - Russ Guard's Strange Disappearance.

reports confirm the press dispatch of the capture of Waitaoshan by the Japanese on Oct. 27 adding that at 10 Meddlesome and extraordinary customs regulations, 2. The silly German surtax, slightly," said he. "Ah! I am very slightly," said I. "At last we panese on Oct. 27, adding that at 10 The anti-combine tobacco legislation. o'clock on Oct. 28 the enemy opened a Of the first Sir Wilfrid said that it vigorous fire against Waitaoshan, but was the first time he had heard com- "London, Ontario, or London, Eng-

CHELSES RAILRUITA ROADS -HAS BEGUN. Position of the Armies.

strong force of the enemy assembled at pao have completely disappeared. In Jap Big Guns Silent.

Oku's), in the Field, Oct. 28, 3 p.m. — interests. Via Fusan, Oct. 29. — The positions of the armies are unchanged. The Russians are continually searching the Japanese lines with their artillery firing night and day, with seldom any reply from the Japanese. The Japanese army is now working the Yentai mines, digging enough coal for all military purposes. It is believed by mining experts that they can double the output.

London, Saturday, Oct. 29.

Sun rises. 6:49 a.m. Moon rises. 9:25 p.m.

Sun sets. . 5:14 p.m. Moon sets. . 11:32 a.m.

Toronto, Oct. 28-8 p.m.

Light scattered showers have occurred perts that they can double the output. The gauge of the railway has been

UNITY OF EMPIRE

is due to imperial dissatisfaction with Secretary Lyftleton's Demand for Conference Approved.

London, Oct. 29. - The Colonial Sec-William Hall, a prosperous merchant. Conservative Club, warmly approved have received word from him, that of Mr. Balfour's cautious attitude towhile on a visit to his old home in wards the fiscal question, and also of Major, a Puce farmer, is exhibiting some yellow metal which he discovered Germany, he was seized and forced into his suggested colonial conference. He some yellow metal which he discovered on his farm. He believes it is gold and will send it to the Government assayish at Ottawa. Oil and gas have been discovered near the Major tarm. Mr discovered near the Major tarm. Mr made to Washington.

Stations. Calgary repudiated the notion that it would lead to wrangling and disappointment. The representatives of the colonies and Britain would be great, not little men. Ottawa. Ottawa. Major was boring for either of these products and struck a hard vein of gravel in which was the glittering metal.

He Pleaded Guilty.

Winnipeg, Oct. 29.— Before Judge Walker yesterday H. G. Butland, for be agreed on the Montreal

Winnipeg, Oct. 29.— Before Judge Would be no harm done, and it would WEA Malker yesterday H. G. Rutland, formerly manager of the Bank of Hamilton, a farmer, who resides near this ton, a farmer, who resides near this bull age, committed suicide this morning in Messes and on July 12, $1,000. He pleaded by hanging himself in his barn. Note that all are dead, Weather Notes.

Walker yesterday H. G. Rutland, formerly manager of the Bank of Hamilton, and Winkler, was charged with steal-ing moneys from the bank as follows: On June 27, $1,000. He pleaded by the Rocky Mountain Coal and Iron Company, an adjunct of the bodies may be cremated, thus making this morning in Western Ontario, and country in this morning in Western Ontario, and country in the bodies of the best and most authoritative representatives of the Empire must meet sooner or later to sextle by hanging himself in his barn. No cause is given for the act.

Walker yesterday H. G. Rutland, formerly manager of the Bank of Hamilton's new in this morning in Western Ontario, and the retritories. It is very fine the bodies may be cremated, thus making with with stead and from Company, an adjunct of the son Cotorado Country for the bodies may be cremated, thus making with stead and from Company, and the provision of the bodies may be cremated, thus making with stead and from Company, and the provision of the bodies may be cremated, thus making with stead and from Company, and the provision of the bodies may be cremated, thus making with stead and from Company, and the provision of the sum of the bodies may be cremated, thus making with stead and from Company, and the provision of the bodies may be cremated, thus making with stead and from Company, and the provision of the bodies may be cremated, thus making with stead and the provision of the sum of the bodies may be cremated, thus making with stead and the provision of the sum of the bodies may be cremated. The bodies may be cremated, thus making with stead and from Company, an adjunct of the mine is burning, and on our or the bodies may be cremated. The bodies may be company and the p gram received in the city from Mon- Sir Wilfrid Scores a Fresh How John Murray "Jollied" Triumph at Montreal. Reginald Burchall.

IS A BAD PLACE!"

Throws Fresh Light on the Celebrated Case.

Torento, Oct. 29. - "To detect a liar pecially by Canadians, but until now no light had been thrown on the manner in which the mystery was solved or how it baffled the efforts of the ex-

"The Memoirs of John Wilson Murray," is a title that gives no indication tains except to those acquainted with the remarkable professional career of Canada's veteran detective. Mr. Victor Speer, a well-known newspaper and magazine writer, collaborated with Mr.

Murray in the writing of the book of some eighty chapters, each of which ir nearly every case deals with a separate incident. These incidents are taken us as the man advanced to meet me.

meet him?" "In London," said he.

on his way to London, Ontario, and, as way was the same. I last saw him at said he. "I'll be very glad to aid you.

came, you know, because we saw the picture in the paper." "Your name, ald Birchall, of London, England."

very glad, indeed," said I.

'Very glad to know you, Mr. Birchall,

it. I noted it was a rather daffit; hand. "Like that," he said. "Would yes, he used to get very jolly," said he.

"That London, Ontario, is a bad place," said I. "They'd kill a man for a $5 note there. And this poor young man went to London, eh?" I could see the relief. The man reiterated his pity for further conversation I produced a nota-book. "I am greatly indebted to you, my dear sir, for your kindness," said I.

"May I trouble you to repeat this in-

The lady began to pace the floor again. The man told once more the tion, as if his own memory had failed to note certain desired details of a casual acquaintance. She answered in a weary, anxious voice. "And I bade him good-bye at the Falls," he concluded. "Did you hear from him?" 1 sional pauses to ask the lady a que ately?"

"Birchall," said he, "Regin-

of the fascinating stories the book con-

THOUSANDS CROWD TO HEAR HIM STORY OF FAMOUS INTERVIEW

Delivers His First Address to the Memoirs of Well-Known Detective English-Speaking Citizens of the City -Answers the Gazette.

Montreal, Oct. 28-Another triumph was added tonight to the long list al- is a great gift; to detect the lie is a ready scored by the Premier during the greater gift." Chief Detective John campaign. Windsor Hall was packed to overflowing, and the greeting that Sir world the story of his fifty Wilfrid Laurier received was at once warm and spontaneous. It was the first speech in English that the Premier fictional work, yet it rivals in interest had delivered to the citizens of Mon- the sensational imaginings of the desk treal since the date of the election was a crush announced, and the result was a crush so intense that it was some time after the speaking began before those who the speaking began before the speaking began befor could not get in became reconciled to ferred to are still well remembered, estheir fate and let order be restored, pecially by Canadians but until now daughter of William Waldorf Astor, Sir Wilfrid was accompanied by Sir Richard Cartwright, who delivered an address of much vigor. For the first familiar ring returned and was maintained throughout for more than an hour. Mr. Edward Holton, ex-M.P. for Chateauguay, was chairman. When Sir Wilfrid, accompanied by a party of distinguished Liberals, arrived, strenuous efforts had to be made to break through the congested passage-500 pages, which is published by Wm. Heineman, of London, Eng. There are way. The appearance of the Premier on the platform produced a most animated scene, characterized by vociferous shouts and cheers. Sir Wilfrid aroused a second demon- incident.

began to show signs of fatigue. The reer. to serve was such as had inspired him to hope for unexpected sources of One of the most striking things in strength, and it must be said for him the book is Mr. Murray's description of that, although his voice was husky at how he first met the murderer Birchall the outset, it gained in force towards and his wife. the close. Sir Wilfrid said he was as Charles Tupper-(applause and laugh- on the Britannic, Mr. Murray met them ter)—and now he could well leave it to in Paris, Ont., later. his predecessor. (Renewed laughter.) perfect taste. He was handsome and However, Sir Wilfrid could say that the present administration would remain in of bearing that was quite attractive. office, because there was no occasion for a change. Of himself he had little HIS MEN WORKING COAL MINES to say, but he was sometimes reminded of a certain well-knowe abbe, who, when asked for an opinion of myself, said, "Well, when I think only of my-Capture of Fort at Port Arthur on self I do not think much of myself, but when I compare myself with others. my self-esteem grows." (Laughter and applause.) The Montreal Gazette this morning had published an editorial in which it and saw the body." The lady shudderhad suggested some things which Sir ed. The man continued that he was very glad to meet me. "You knew the Tokio, Oct. 29. - 4:30 p.m. - Official Wilfrid might discuss tonight: 1.

toms. Nothing had been heard in Par-liament, and he asked where was the quaintance, I met him, don't you know. Opposition? And if the German surtax on the ship, aboardship, in fact." had been silly, where had Mr. Borden, name?" I asked. "I think it was Bent-Mr. Monk and Mr. Haggart been in the well or Benswell, or Benwell," said he. House? Surely if the Government had "I knew him very slightly." "What been silly enough to introduce a silly ship?" said I. "The Britannic of the measure, the Opposition were doubly White Star Line," said he. "We arsilly in not criticising it, and the Mon-rived in New York on Friday, Feb. 14." elected. treal Gazette the silliest of all in point. "When did you last see the ing out the silliness of the Opposition." young man alive?" I asked. "He was (Applause and laughter.) Furthermore, (Applause and laughter,) I the like we were traveling to the Falls, our anti-tobacco trust legislation, "and." he added, "we shall maintain it." (Loud the Falls. He had a great deal of lugadded, "we shall maintain it. thought the rails, He had a great deat of applause.) Continuing, Sir Wilfrid observed that in referring to these things in fact." "I'm very glad to know this," the Gazette had in reality brought the said I, gratefully. "You will be able leader of the Opposition to task. Where to point out this luggage?" was the Opposition? Where was Mr. Borden and Mr. Monk? It seemed to I am returning to the Falls today. We him, at the instance of the Gazette, instead of a change of Government, the people really needed a change of Opposition. (Applause.) The policy of the Government and the attitude of the Opposition were then fully dealt with, and the Premier took his seat in the midst of deafening cheers.

War in Morocco.

Tangier, Morocco, Oct. 29. - The dead body had upset her. She began to Kangtajenshan, and Russian guards, British steamer Hercules from Larache Dace up and down the room. holding the heights north of Pinniell (45 miles southwest of Tangier), rewhen you last saw him?" I asked. I ports that Larache is in a state of had a navy blue overcoat on at the Butchers' Union Will Demand That siege. The Hercules was fired upon in time. Mr. Birchall put his hand on the other directions an artillery duel octhe river and left without her cargo, coat sleeve. There was no tremor in bringing an appeal from the British Headquarters of Left Army (General vice-consul for the protection of British he take a glass, do you know?"

WEATHER BULLETIN.

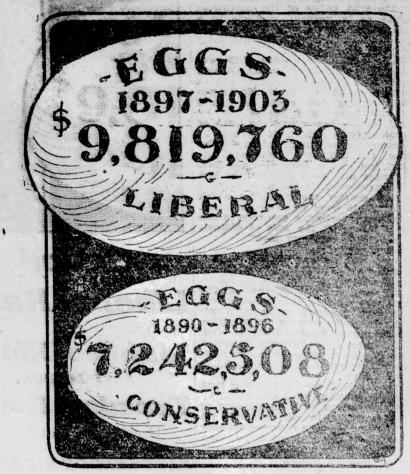

Tomorrow-Fair and Cooler.

today in the Ottawa and Upper St. Law-rence valleys, but with this exception fine changed to Yentai, and quantities of weather has prevailed throughout Cansupplies and ammunition are arriving. ada. It continues warm in the Northwest weather has prevailed throughout Callada. It continues warm in the Northwest Territories and Manitoba, and temperatures have risen in Ontario, while in Quebec and the Maritime Provinces the Quebec and the Maritime Provinces the weather continues cool.

Minimum and maximum temperatures:
Davson. 20-28; Victoria. 40-52; Kamloops. 36-56; Calgary. 28-66; Qu'Appelle, 40-66; Winnipeg. 32-58; Port Arthur. 24-59; Parry Sound. 30-46; Toronto. 34-48; Ottawa. 26-40; Montreal. 24-40; Quebec, 24-38; St. John. 28-42; Halifax, 26-38.

FORECASTS. Saturday, Oct. 29-8 a.m. day-Fine and comparatively warm. nday-North and west winds; fair and cooler again TEMPERATURES

PROSPERITY EXHIBIT === NO. 7

Exports of Canadian Eggs.

It will be seen by the above that the export of this important farm. product has added 25 per cent to its proportions during Liberal administra-tion. This is largely due to the perfeting of the cold storage system for transportation of perishable products. 45,000 PRIVATES

the Losses From Oct. 9

St. Petersburg, Oct. 29. - Gen. Sak-Birchall and his wife came to Princesure of success on Nov. 3 as he was of his own life. He did not wish to along with others identified it, they 28. There was occasional cannonading pose as a prophet, for in the old days saying it was the body of a shipboard along the whole front, but the Japan-which were spent in the stronghold of companion who came over with them ese fire was inefficient, and the Rus-Gibraltar, has had an offer of $1,000 if "The gentleman sian casualties were insignificant. The he will make drawings of the plans of Mr. Borden, who was a good second to was," says Mr. Murray, "dressed in night of Oct. 28-29 was quiet, The Gibralta'r, such as were recently found general staff today issued a statement in the streets of Baltimore. easy in manner, with a certain grace The lady stood by the window looking out. She was a siender, pleasant-faced blonde. She half-turned and watched officers and 45,000 men.

self, asked Birchall whether he was the gentleman who had been out looking at the body of the young man found in the swamp. "Yes," was the reply; "my wife and I were out to the grave Democratic Official.

New York, Oct. 29. - Urey Woodson the secretary of the Democratic national committee, who said he was speak ing for the committee, today predicted the overwhelming election of Judge may know who he is. Where did you Parker to the presidency; predicted that all doubtful states will be Democratic, and also that some states, call-land?" said I. "He came from London, ed Republican, will be and are doubt-"I have every confidence that Judge Parker will be elected. I have been announce from observation and what have received that Parker is "All the doubtful states, so called, will be in the Democratic column, and > publican, are now in the doubtful col-"We will carry New York, New Jersey, Connecticut. Indiana, Maryland, army matters, b West Virginia, Idaho, Colorado, Utah, nothing to say." and Nevada. In other words all the doubtful states for us and for Judge Parker's election. 'Illinois is doubtful, Ohio even, is doubtful. The big men, whoc ontrolled that state are now dead. The Republicans assume they are going to there, but we hear they might lose.

Even California has sent good reports to us, and we are hopeful of even car-

'Maryland is certainly as Democratic many of the states called purely Re-

During our conversation he became quite familiar, and talkative. His wife was very nervous, as if the sight of the as Maryland. WANT JAPS EXCLUDED rying that state.

United States Keep Them Out.

the American industrial field by Japan- to the intrigues carried on by a hum-ese laborers is feared by President ber of informers and spies, including Michael Donnelly, of the Butcher two women. His testimony did not Workmen's Union. To head off the Japanese, Donnelly will introduce a re- the Dreyfus case, the witness saying solution at the convention of the Amer- that the chief desire then of the war wife's face clear with an expression of ican Rederation of Labor in San Fran- office authorities was to close up the cisco next month calling for the enact- Dreyfus affair. the young man and his desire to be of ment of legislation excluding them any service possible to me. We chatfrom the United States. ted quite cordially. "Were you ever on this continent before?" I asked.

The matter was brought to Donnelly's attention by a call made on him by Sealey, Texas, Oct. 29.—Paul Engel-"Yes, New York and Niagara Falls, but never into Canada," said he. After K. Okajima, a Japanese, who was king, candidate for the Legislatu seeking information regarding conditions in the packing plants. Mr. Okajima showed letters of introduction to the packers recommending him as the proper person to furnish them with Ja-panese labor. He said that he had in his hand, which exploded, the ball formation, so that I may note it accurbeen told the employers in Chicago passing through two walls into the could give work to five or six hundred | barber shop, striking Engelking. Both story he had told me. He made occa-

Soldier, Formerly of the British Garrison.

Baltimore Oct. 29 - Private Pete G. Emmett, of the Coast Artillery at that the number killed, wounded and position, he says, was made to him on last Thursday night by a stranger in missing in the fighting which began dast Thursday night by a stranger in Oct. 9 and ended on Oct. 18 totated 800 Harlem Park. The man spoke with a Some time ago maps of forts Hores SEES VICTORY FOR PARKER were found on the street of Baltimore. Private Emmett, who examined then All Over But the Cheering, Says recognized them as crude but faithful drawings of the forts. He said that in prove invaluable to the enemy. Since en a stranger has appeared at Fort McHenry and has had several inter views at other places with Private Emmett. He offered Emmett $1,000 to reproduce the drawing of the forts or to make drawings of his own. Emmett says this stranger was about 50 years old and about 5 feet 10 inches tall, and has a dark red beard which he chews as he talks. He was dressed in black and wore a soft hat and glasses. Emmett believes he is a spy 'a foreign government, probably a Russian, and thinks he came here from Emmett refused to make the draw-"I can't shatter an oath," he told the man. The emissary tried to work on Emmett's feelings as an Irish-American, but Emmett remained firm.

"If ever Uncle Sam," he said, "re quires of me the service you seek, and am a sworn soldier of the Union then I will use my knowledge of British army matters, but until then I have

SPIES IN DREYFUS CASE

Officers at Courtmartial Give Evidence as to Informers.

Paris, Oct. 29. - The court-martial of ministry-Colonels Dautrich and Rollin as Kentucky, West Virginia is as sure and Captains Francois and Marescha -charged with using military funds and otherwise influencing witnesses against Dreyfus at Rennes, was con-Captain Mareschal further explained the purchase of documents from the spy known as "Austerlitz," and asserted that throughout the transaction he had merely done what he conceived to

Captain Francois testified lengthily

Twenty=One Entombed In Coal Mine Accident

asked. "Just a line," he said. "Have you got it?" I asked. "Have I got Fred's note, my dear?" he asked his wife. "No," said the lady, "but I remember seeing it." "It was just a note to get his luggage through," said he. "His first name was Fred?" I fatal explosion, which occurred yester-Cloudy he. "His first name was Fred? I lated Spread and Tercio Mine, No. 3, artificial devices. No bodies were reand we eyed each. "It was so signed owned by the Rocky Mountain Coal covered last night.

Trinidad, Col., Oct. 29. - Coroner B.; "I think the explosion, which caused