ANNUAL HOCKEY MEETING HELD

CITY LEAGUE, JUNIOR AND PERHAPS OPENING OF FIGHT BIDS MAY BE NIPPED IN BUD SENIOR HOCKEY TEAM FOR LONDON

City Will Have a Variety of Classes to Choose From This Winter -Archie McMahen Elected President and Bert Heaman Vice-President—Locals' Colors Blue and Gray.

From present appearances London hockey followers will have several classes of the sport to choose from during the coming season. At a largely attended meeting held in the Tecumseh House last evening it was decided to organize a city league here, as there is plenty of material, while the executive committee was given power to arrange for the O. H. A. teams. A junior and possibly a senior team will be entered. A large number of players attended the meeting.

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED.

Officers for the coming year were elected, Archie McMahen being chosen as president, Bert Heaman, vice-president, and J. H. Fowler, secretarytreasurer. The executive committee will be composed of the officers and one representative from each hockey team.

Many of the players were in favor of entering a team in the seniors, but before coming to a decision it was decided to communicate with the other teams in the group. Should the majority of them favor the senior, London will fall in line for that class. This city will also be represented by a junior team, sufficient material being apparently available.

COLORS BLUE AND GRAY.

Blue sweaters with gray collars and cuffs, and all blue stockings were decided on for the London teams. The emblem of two years ago will be used again. It is an "L" and an arrow. The city league, which was almost unanimously decided upon, will be made up of two groups, junior and intermediate.

The matter of drawing up a code of rules was left with the executive
