> Ottawa, Sept. 15. — No important developments in the Rubenstein case have so far developed today, though the police are at work on a new line of investigation, arising out of the arrest of Cooke and Stevens, the two > negroes, in Hamilton. They allege that the description of the two men tallies almost identically with that of the two who were seen carrying a trunk on the stret close to the shop where Rubenstein's remains were found. This was at 6 o'clock on Saturday, Aug. 30, the last day of the valideville engagement of Cooke and Stevens here.

At this particular hour, it is alleged, they were absent from their rooms. The two roomed in the house on Queen street at, or alongside which, it is the belief of the police, the murder occur-

NEW DISTRICT ADDS 5,000

Recently Annexed Suburbs Swell the Population Substantially.

London's newest suburbs, those secons of London and Westminster Townships that were annexed, will swell the city's population by more than 5,000, according to Assessor Martin O'Sullivan, who is working on the 1914 assessment of the new districts. Just how many more than 5,000 the increase will go is unknown as the assessment has not been completed and it will be some time before

In order that one basis of valuation ay be used throughout the entire district, Assessment Commissioner Stephen Grant placed the work in the hands of Assessor Sullivan and the entire work is being done by him. Assisted by Alf. Burwell, ready completed the districts south of Dundas streets, and is now at work on the new territory, lying north of the dividing line.

Without the addition of the population of the annexed districts, London will show an increased population of close to 2,000. an increased population of close to 2,000. Ward 1, the only one yet to be finished, will be ready in the course of a few days. The addition in this section will be several hundred, and possibly more. In the other wards, 2, 3 and 4, the increases amount to 1,260 being divided, 425 to Ward 4, 441 to Ward 3, and 394 to Ward 2.

LORD BALLYROT

On one occasion, at my favorite club, you know, I desired especially to indite a letter home. Finding a lack of writing materials, as, for instance, my dear fellow, pen and ink, I 'phoned my wants to a boy attendant, who

"I gotcha, mista! You're honing for an ink needle and a tub of brunette scratching sap. Just clutch yout breath and I'll glom the 'yours truly' freight for you. Then you can fire your thoughts down the dumb waiter from your high dome and begin making Bresna-hen clues on white paper."
