

This Page May Contain
Some Ideas That Will Prove Helpful to You

THE WOMAN OF TODAY

Read What Katherine
Leslie Has to Say Each Day--It's Worth While

Your Real Stylish Lady Can Now Borrow
Her Husband's "Galluses" to Hold
Her "Peg Top" Skirt Up.

ARTIST HIGGINS' IMPRESSIONS OF THE NEW FALL FASHIONS.

The "pegtop" skirt with its "out" at the bottom and its "in" at the top is supposed to be the latest in fashion. Note the suspenders! Husbands will have a chance to return those embroidered monstrosities which have been giving them at Christmas for years and years. These hats are all shown at fashionable shops and they will have the name of some famous French milliner in the crown.

Daily Healthgram

A child, having whooping cough, should be kept away from other children, have plenty of fresh air; be kept clean and in as good general condition as possible.

help some? With thanks.

PEG O' MY HEART.

A.—Yes, indeed, "Peg," your suggestions are very good, and it is so kind of you to take the trouble to forward them. Might I say a word of warning though, that if olive oil is used excessively, a growth of superfluous hair may result.

Regarding the games you ask about, have you been following the "Entertainment" column on this page? I believe it was omitted for two or three days, but will be resumed on Saturday. Because of this department, I think it hardly necessary for me to print games here, and, indeed, lack of space prevents. Call again, "Peg."

The Marriage Question.

Dear Miss Grey—As I have received help from your useful column, before, I now come to you again to help me.

1. I am 25 years old, am I old enough to get married?

2. The fellow that I am about to marry always makes me aware of the fact that he is spending money on me when he takes me to the show or treats me when I am out with him. What do you think of him?

3. What is the meaning of the names: Agnes, Gordon, Elizabeth, Harold, Harry and Annie?

4. Hoping that this will not tire you out, and that I receive an answer as soon as possible, CLARA B.

A.—1. Judging by your years, you are old enough.

2. I think this shows an unpleasant side of a man's character. Such a one will be sure to find fault when his wife wants a new frock, or will grumble at the price of groceries—just as if she could help it!

3. Agnes, chaste; Gordon, watchful;

Elizabeth, consecrated; Harold, a champion; Harry, head of the house;

Annie, grace.

THE POET'S CORNER

AT BANNOCKBURN.

Scots, wha hae wi' Wallace bled,
Scots, wham Bruce has aften led;
Welcome to your gory bed,
Or to victorie!

Now's the day, and now's the hour,
See the front o' battle lour;
See approach proud Edward's power—
Chains and slavery!

Wha will be a traitor-knave?
Wha can fill a coward's grave?
Wha sae base as a slave to see
Lies him turn and flee!

Wha for Scotland's king and law,
Freedom's sword will strongly draw,
Freeman stand, or kinsman fa',
Let him follow me!

By oppression's woes and pains!
By your sons in servile chains!
We will drain our dearth veins,
But they shall be free!

Lay the proud usurpers low!
Tyrrants fall in every row!
Liberty's in every blow!
Let us do or die!

—Robert Burns.

Be Fashionable Carry a Cane

Quite in keeping with the new vests, minaret skirts and waistcoats which the women are wearing comes the cane. "Swagger canes" they are called by the English army officers. In London, Paris and Rome, the most fashionable women, old and young, are carrying them, so that they are quite as usual as a parasol here.

The new canes are about a foot longer than the gentleman's cane; that is, about 45 inches. They are much lighter in weight and come in two varieties, one with a small knob, and the other with the curved handle. Ebony is perhaps the smartest wood used, with pimento or Malacca a close second.

London is quite mad over the part-

YOUR HOLIDAY PREPARATIONS

Corsets

"D. & A." Canadian-made Corsets are the best low-priced Corset in the world.

MODEL NO. 294—A style best suited to medium and large figures. Has drawstring, twin hooks in front, is trimmed with lace and ribbon. A pair $1.00

MODEL NO. 420—One of the latest and most fashionable styles, medium bust and extremely long but comfortable below the waist. Lace and ribbon trimmed. Pair, $1.50

MODEL NO. 516—An extremely low girdle effect, slight hips and back, having a very graceful appearance and is particularly suitable to young ladies and all slight figures. Price, pair $1.75

We have many other lines at from 50c pair up.

Children's Wool Suits

Knitted Wool Suits, "teddy bear styles," in brown and gray, sizes 1 to 3 years, at, $1.75 and $2.00

Knitted Allovers, in white and red, at, 50c, $1.50, $1.75, $2

New Collars

Lace Medici Collars in all colors, at, 50c

Large White Lace Fichus in round and sailor back style, at, 50c, 75c

Bulgarian Collars in the newest shapes, at, 50c, 75c, 85c, $1, $1.25, $2

Gray's Millinery

A very big assortment for Saturday selling of Ready-to-Wear and Dress Hats will be found in our millinery parlors Saturday. New styles, becoming styles, individual styles and low prices.

Coating Corduroy

A special heavy quality, suitable for coats and plain skirts, in brown and gray, 28 inches wide, at yard, $1.50

For a handsome, stylish suit, see our Chinchilla Velvets. We are sole agents for this velvet; in new shades, at per yard $1.50

GRAY'S LIMITED

Drygoods, Millinery, Ladies'
Ready-to-Wear Garments
Phone 1182 150 Dundas

GRAY'S LIMITED

TASTY OYSTER RECIPES

Line a deep pie-plate with rich puff paste. Fill this with bread crumbs (to be removed later). Fit on a top crust, buttered about the edge, on the under side, that it may easily be removed. Bake in hot oven a golden brown.

Stew one quart of oysters for five minutes. Stir very slowly one cup of white sauce. Salt to taste, dash of pepper and the well-beaten yolks of two eggs. Remove top crust and fill pie with oyster mixture. Replace top crust and set in the oven for five minutes before serving.

Fried Oysters.

For this select fine, large oysters as uniform in size as possible. Drain off the liquor. Lay them on a soft cloth to dry, pressing them very lightly with another cloth to remove all moisture possible.

Roll each oyster in fine cracker crumbs, coating it fully. Lay aside on platter for ten minutes. Have well-beaten egg in which has been put one tablespoon of water. Dip each oyster in egg and again cover with fine crumbs. Have kettle to contain enough hot fat to cover the oysters. Place a layer of oysters in bottom of wire basket, immerse in boiling fat until they puff up and are golden brown. Have the fat hot enough to brown a piece of bread in two minutes. Arrange on hot platter with sliced lemon and watercress. Serve at once.

Broiled Oyster.

Wash shells and lay oysters on grid-iron or broiler pan. Put under hot gas flame or over bed of red coals. As soon as each opens drop bit of butter and dust pepper in each shell and serve at once.

Panned Oysters.

Wash one pint of oysters in cold skillets very hot. Put in oysters. Shake about until the edges curl. Put on hot platter. Add butter, salt and pepper and serve with watercress sandwiches.

Plans for a great international congress on marriage and divorce, to be held in San Francisco May 19-24, 1916, were tentatively decided upon at the luncheon attended by members of the California State Commission on Marriage and Divorce.

Princess George of Greece is a vegetarian.

It is the right of a city to demand upland by the United States supreme court in a decision sustaining the fight.

It is the right of a city to establish such other regulations as will insure the identity of the source of the milk may be known.

Both these contentions have been upheld by the United States supreme court in a decision sustaining the fight.

Milwaukee milk ordinance. The court holds with the state court that the ornance is not discriminatory, that it is a reasonable requirement, and that the court cannot question the purpose and the necessity for it. The police power of the state must be declared adequate to such a desired purpose, and the city ordinance, in the section providing for the destruction of milk not conforming to its requirements, is not an arbitrary and unreasonable deprivation of property in a wholesome food, but a regulation having the purpose of and found to be such other regulations as will insure the identity of the source of the milk public health.

So don't give up the fight for pure milk. It's a winning fight, a growing fight, and a good all-the-year-round fight.

Snow flurries and rainstorms need not halt it!

HOOD'S PILLS

Cure Constipation, 25c. Purely vegetable. Best family cathartic.

Table Linens

25 only Table Cloths, all pure linen, size 2x2½ yards, to clear at the following special prices: 3 at $1.98 each, 4 at $2.25 each, 6 at $2.50 each, and 12 at $3.00 each.

Towels, 35c Pair

Fine Huck Towels with fancy damask borders, at pair, 35c

Wool Blankets

Two very good values in white wool low-priced Blankets.

"Gray's Special," at pair, $2.75

"Gray's Choice," at pair, $3.00

Buying direct from manufacturers, we are able to give you these very low prices.

Checks and Plaids for Separate Skirts

The most up-to-date and popular materials for the smart separate skirt are shepherd checks and Scotch tartans.

Yard.

42-inch black and white check, 50c

52-inch black and white check, 75c

52-inch black and white check, $1.00

56-inch black and white check, $1.50

60-inch black and white check, $2.00

56-inch Scotch tartans, in all-wool chevrons, excellent quality, at per yard, $1.50

Bordered Scrims, 15c Yard

3 pieces 36-inch Bordered Curtain Scrim, at yard, 15c

See the big range of Nets and Scrims selling at, yard, 25c

Misses' Cutaway Coats, $7.50

These are made of diagonal boucle cloth. This is the new rough-finished two-toned cloth so much used. Collar can be fastened high or with revers. Belt on back. In colors of black and navy, and tan and black combination colors. Sizes 14, 16 and 18, at, $7.50

Another special in Misses' Coats at, $10.50

Ladies' Curly Cloth Coats, $15.00 and $16.00

These Coats are made of a two-toned diagonal curly cloth. Are lined to waist with satin. Smart cutaway styles, trimmed with buttons. Sizes 34, 36 and 38, at, $15, $16

WE ARE EXPANDING

We are now prepared to do LADIES' TAILORING in addition to our regular GENTLEMEN'S TAILORING business. Our ladies' tailoring expert has had a wide experience. Guaranteed fit to every garment. Fall and winter styles now ready.

FAMULARO & CARAVELLA
475 RICHMOND STREET.
Next Door to Grand Opera House.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTES

HYDE PARK.

The Ladies' Institute of Hyde Park intend holding their next meeting at the home of Miss McKenzie on the Wednesday of next week. Interesting papers will be given by Mrs. G. C. Watson and Miss Amy McEwen, of Byron. All the ladies are cordially invited to attend.

Fight for Pure Milk All-Year-Round Problem—Keep It Up Rain or Shine

[BY A PHYSICIAN.]

The subject of "Pure Milk" should be just as popular in the winter as in the summer!

Milk tests, clean dairies and clean milk bottles should be as assiduously sought after the tenth month of the year as the sixth or seventh.

It is the right of a city to demand upland by the United States supreme court in a decision sustaining the fight.

It is the right of a city to establish such other regulations as will insure the identity of the source of the milk may be known.

Both these contentions have been upheld by the United States supreme court in a decision sustaining the fight.

Milwaukee milk ordinance. The court holds with the state court that the ornance is not discriminatory, that it is a reasonable requirement, and that the court cannot question the purpose and the necessity for it. The police power of the state must be declared adequate to such a desired purpose, and the city ordinance, in the section providing for the destruction of milk not conforming to its requirements, is not an arbitrary and unreasonable deprivation of property in a wholesome food, but a regulation having the purpose of and found to be such other regulations as will insure the identity of the source of the milk public health.

So don't give up the fight for pure milk. It's a winning fight, a growing fight, and a good all-the-year-round fight.

Snow flurries and rainstorms need not halt it!

HOOD'S PILLS

Cure Constipation, 25c. Purely vegetable. Best family cathartic.

THE NOSE-TREE.

[AS TOLD BY AUNT GERTIE.]

CHAPTER I.

Did you ever hear the story of the three poor, old, broken-down soldiers who had spent all their strength and all their money in the wars, and who were obliged to beg their way back home?

Days and days they travelled toward home with little or nothing to eat and no place but the roadside to sleep.

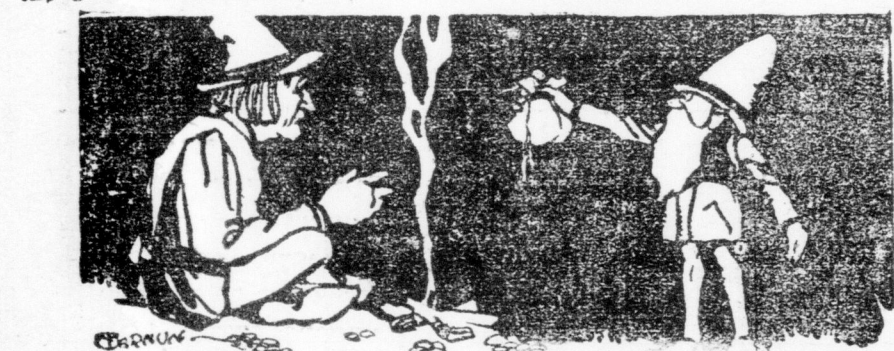

One night they came to a gloomy woods through which they soon saw they must pass. Night was coming on. The shadows made strange, shapes on the ground. The trees rustled and Finding the old soldier to be of such a kindly disposition, the little dwarf decided to help him in some way.

"You are old and poor," said the dwarf. "I will see if I can help you. Take this cloak and show it to your companions. Whenever you throw it over your shoulders you will get anything which you wish." Then the red-jacket disappeared into the darkness.

The next night a second old soldier watched. The dwarf came again, bringing with him a purse which he gave to the soldier, saying: "This will be always full of gold!"

The third night the last old soldier the leaves crackled as if live creatures were walking over them.

"All we can do is to keep watch in turns," announced one of the three as they made up their beds on the hard earth, and decided to make the best of it.

"All right," agreed the other two. So two of them went to sleep, and the third sat up and watched.

While the old soldier mused beside the campfire, something happened! A little dwarf in a red jacket, high boots and a queer-shaped hat, walked up out of nowhere. It seemed,

"Who are you?" he asked of the old soldier, in a high, squeaky voice.

"A friend, to be sure," answered the old man. "Come up closer and get warm by the fire."

And where do you think they went, and whom do you think they saw? (To Be Continued.)

PROBLEMS OF THE FAIR SEX SOLVED BY CYNTHIA GREY

[Correspondents are requested to make their inquiries as brief as possible, and to write on one side of the paper only. It is impossible to give replies within a stated time, as all letters have to be answered in turn. No letters can be answered privately.]

From Peg o' My Heart.

Dear Cynthia—I wonder if you can help me, please.

1. Can you tell me of any games at guessing?

2. Also any quiet games to play indoors?

I noticed the other day that someone asked you how to get rid of pimples and blackheads. I think I have found a good way to get rid of them. First, before retiring wash the face in hot, salty water; dry and rub olive oil well into the skin. Do this every night for a week, and see if it works. I think I noticed someone asked for some new ideas for dressing for a masquerade party. Here are a few: Miss Canada, trimmed with leaves, or red, white and blue; Nun; Miss America, Dutch Maiden, Ghost, Witch. How will these do? Will they mean a dressy hat, a suitable wrap or cloak, shoes and stockings to match, gloves and the necessary accessories. I've got to have many blouses to wear with my tailor suit, and blouses and suit coats call for so much neck furniture—all this—look—is it not ridiculous? Then I have to have underwear, night dresses, a suitable dressing gown, all my toilet things if I am to be decent! Why is it that custom presses so much harder upon women than men? It must be because men will submit to custom and fashion up to a certain point only, and beyond that they refuse to budge. I know it is "up to me" to be sensible and to take only the barest necessities. But if I do that no one would be so vexed as Billy for he likes me to have a good time when we go to town, and if I have not the necessary smart garments for all occasions, he glowers and asks me why I haven't got them! Men are like that—most unreasonable creatures always. Then I confess that I do not like to appear at a disadvantage before my women friends. You can't go to a smart tea or bridge in a tailor suit and hat, and assuredly you can't go to dinner in any such costume. Of course, I mean you can't if you wish to be 'in it' at all with the others. Now all Billy has to do is to take his changes of linen and a few collars and ties and he is ready for anything or everything, from a wedding to a funeral if we could only be as sensible as men!

Our men folk have much more easy than we do. But custom and fashion position are too much for us. No we are not worthy the vote till we simplify our lives and our clothes more than we do now. No use saying to such a one, "Why don't you"

KATHERINE LESLIE'S HOME CHAT

WOMAN AND HER DRESS

"Don't talk to me about the vote till we are as sensible as men about our clothes," said a pretty young matron who was packing for a week's shopping in New York. "Just look at the pile of things I have to take with me—this trunk won't hold them, and there is Billy's suitcase! I have to have a dinner gown, and a dinner gown means all these accessories, an evening wrap, the slippers and stockings that go with it, my fan, gloves, jewelry, etc. I have to have an afternoon gown, for there are afternoon invitations and an afternoon gown means a dressy hat, a suitable wrap or cloak, shoes and stockings to match, gloves and the necessary accessories. I've got to have many blouses to wear with my tailor suit, and blouses and suit coats call for so much neck furniture—all this—look—is it not ridiculous? Then I have to have underwear, night dresses, a suitable dressing gown, all my toilet things if I am to be decent! Why is it that custom presses so much harder upon women than men? It must be because men will submit to custom and fashion up to a certain point only, and beyond that they refuse to budge. I know it is "up to me"

to be sensible and to take only the barest necessities. But if I do that no one would be so vexed as Billy for he likes me to have a good time when we go to town, and if I have not the necessary smart garments for all occasions, he glowers and asks me why I haven't got them! Men are like that—most unreasonable creatures always. Then I confess that I do not like to appear at a disadvantage before my women friends. You can't go to a smart tea or bridge in a tailor suit and hat, and assuredly you can't go to dinner in any such costume. Of course, I mean you can't if you wish to be 'in it' at all with the others. Now all Billy has to do is to take his changes of linen and a few collars and ties and he is ready for anything or everything, from a wedding to a funeral if we could only be as sensible as men!

Our men folk have much more easy than we do. But custom and fashion position are too much for us. No we are not worthy the vote till we simplify our lives and our clothes more than we do now. No use saying to such a one, "Why don't you" to be sensible and to take only the barest necessities. But if I do that no one would be so vexed as Billy for he likes me to have a good time when we go to town, and if I have not the necessary smart garments for all occasions, he glowers and asks me why I haven't got them! Men are like that—most unreasonable creatures always. Then I confess that I do not like to appear at a disadvantage before my women friends. You can't go to a smart tea or bridge in a tailor suit and hat, and assuredly you can't go to dinner in any such costume. Of course, I mean you can't if you wish to be 'in it' at all with the others. Now all Billy has to do is to take his changes of linen and a few collars and ties and he is ready for anything or everything, from a wedding to a funeral if we could only be as sensible as men!

Our men folk have much more easy than we do. But custom and fashion position are too much for us. No we are not worthy the vote till we simplify our lives and our clothes more than we do now. No use saying to such a one, "Why don't you" to be sensible and to take only the barest necessities. But if I do that no one would be so vexed as Billy for he likes me to have a good time when we go to town, and if I have not the necessary smart garments for all occasions, he glowers and asks me why I haven't got them! Men are like that—most unreasonable creatures always. Then I confess that I do not like to appear at a disadvantage before my women friends. You can't go to a smart tea or bridge in a tailor suit and hat, and assuredly you can't go to dinner in any such costume. Of course, I mean you can't if you wish to be 'in it' at all with the others. Now all Billy has to do is to take his changes of linen and a few collars and ties and he is ready for anything or everything, from a wedding to a funeral if we could only be as sensible as men!

Our men folk have much more easy than we do. But custom and fashion position are too much for us. No we are not worthy the vote till we simplify our lives and our clothes more than we do now. No use saying to such a one, "Why don't you" to be sensible and to take only the barest necessities. But if I do that no one would be so vexed as Billy for he likes me to have a good time when we go to town, and if I have not the necessary smart garments for all occasions, he glowers and asks me why I haven't got them! Men are like that—most unreasonable creatures always. Then I confess that I do not like to appear at a disadvantage before my women friends. You can't go to a smart tea or bridge in a tailor suit and hat, and assuredly you can't go to dinner in any such costume. Of course, I mean you can't if you wish to be 'in it' at all with the others. Now all Billy has to do is to take his changes of linen and a few collars and ties and he is ready for anything or everything, from a wedding to a funeral if we could only be as sensible as men!

Our men folk have much more easy than we do. But custom and fashion position are too much for us. No we are not worthy the vote till we simplify our lives and our clothes more than we do now. No use saying to such a one, "Why don't you" to be sensible and to take only the barest necessities. But if I do that no one would be so vexed as Billy for he likes me to have a good time when we go to town, and if I have not the necessary smart garments for all occasions, he glowers and asks me why I haven't got them! Men are like that—most unreasonable creatures always. Then I confess that I do not like to appear at a disadvantage before my women friends. You can't go to a smart tea or bridge in a tailor suit and hat, and assuredly you can't go to dinner in any such costume. Of course, I mean you can't if you wish to be 'in it' at all with the others. Now all Billy has to do is to take his changes of linen and a few collars and ties and he is ready for anything or everything, from a wedding to a funeral if we could only be as sensible as men!

Our men folk have much more easy than we do. But custom and fashion position are too much for us. No we are not worthy the vote till we simplify our lives and our clothes more than we do now. No use saying to such a one, "Why don't you"

to be sensible and to take only the barest necessities. But if I do that no one would be so vexed as Billy for he likes me to have a good time when we go to town, and if I have not the necessary smart garments for all occasions, he glowers and asks me why I haven't got them! Men are like that—most unreasonable creatures always. Then I confess that I do not like to appear at a disadvantage before my women friends. You can't go to a smart tea or bridge in a tailor suit and hat, and assuredly you can't go to dinner in any such costume. Of course, I mean you can't if you wish to be 'in it' at all