LONDON 1914 TEAM BEST YET; PLAYERS WORKING FOR

Early Training Proves a Success, With the Material at the Camp Manager Reisling Expects to Mould Out a Championship Team

Information from the London training camp and from the owners of the Tecumsehs show that when the Canadian League season opens in May Manager "Doc" Reisling will have a team far superior to any that has yet represented this city in a race for the league championship.

The London owners have received word from the camp that the players are working harder than ever before and the early spring training experiment has proven a success in the way of giving Manager Reisling a chance to weed out the material which will not make the grade.

Manager Reisling believes that with the best of last year's team and the cream of the recruits now in training he will be able to reconstruct a team that should finish on top of the Canadian League when the last game is

RED SOX DEFEAT SENATORS

Chicago, April 15 .- Timely hitting by Chicago, coupled with the sensational fielding of Weaver, enabled the locals to make it two straight from Cleveland today, 2 to 1. The game was a pitchers' battle between Cicotte and Steen. In the eighth inning, Weaver of Chicago, tripled and Coach Gleason stepped into the infield and held the runner on third. Weaver was declared out by Umpire Sheridan. This is in accordance with the new amendment to the rules. In the seventh inning Pitcher Steen In the seventh inning Pitcher Steen of the Cleveland Club was hit on the knuckle of his pitching hand by Cicotte and was compelled to retire. It was said after the game it would be some time before he could play again. Steen said he thought his knuckle was broken.
