Hay Scarce and Brings Good Price-New Hay Offered on Market.

Hay was the only offering and it was scarce on the market square this morning. Hay sold for $12 and $14 a ton. One load of new hay sold on Tuesray for $10 a ton. vegetables are becoming Small cheaper in price. Radishes, green onions, rhubarb, lettuce sell at 20 cents a dozen. New beets sold yesterday for 25 cents a dozen. Asparagus sells for 50 and 60 cents per dozen. Fomatoes are still dear, at 17 to 20 cents a pound. Wheat remains at the low price it took nearly a week ago, dropping from $1.05 to 95 cents per bushel. Cherries were plentiful Tuesday, but none were on sale today. Straw-berries are almost done. No raspberries have been on the square as yet, but a supply is expected on the Saturday market.

Potatoes will probably be scarce or Saturday, which is the only market where they are offered. New potatoes sell for $1.50 and $1.60 per bag. So far few have been offered for sale.

KELLY PLAYS TO CAPACITY "HOUSE"

With Assistance of Cops He Puts on Vaudeville Performance.

REAL THRILLER PRESENTED

All-Star Cast Gathers to Stage Richmond Street "Drammer."

The "dramatis personae" was: One policeman, A bystander, All these helped Eighteen people, to arrest

First, a policeman saw Walter Kelly, who is on the prohibitory list Association whose annual convention at police headquarters. Kelly was do- closed here yesterday: H. Bruce Gordon, ing a jaggy step-and-dance on the east side of Richmond street, between Montreal, vice-president for Quebec Dundas and King at 11 o'clock. The Kelly resisted the cop. Then the cop called the bystander into action. The cop kneeled on Kelly's stomach, and the bystander on Kelly's feet. Mixed with other things, Kelly shouted, "Ye can't keep th' Irish down!" and started things, with feet, hands and mouth. The eighteen people ranged 'round, speaking instructions. The patrol arrived soon after Kelly's last spasm.

Voice of the People

Sir James' Worries Not Over.

To the Editor of The Advertiser: As a citizen Conservative, whose party ffiliations are outweighed by temper ance principles, I note, as all must, the dismal howl that goes up from the pages of your local contemporary for Rowell's retirement from the Opposition leader-Nor is this to be wondered at when we consider the source and the cause. Surely, since Mr. Rowell has been Opposition lead : ie has given the Whitney Government the time of its life. No opposition leader in the Ontario House at any time, of either party, has so re lentlessly put the party in power to the pin of its collar, and made it retreat down the party gangplank to an untimely end as did Mr. Rowell in the last Parliament. Truly, they went to the country, because there was nothing else

Even today, it is apparent to all who look beneath the surface that Rowell has again given the proud Whitney Government its deathblow, for, despite its size, it is only gasping out an existence on the disintegrating stimulant poured into it by the liquor traffic, and again 'will not live out half its days.'

After over a week of scab labor at cabinet making, it's the old story-the poor workman quarrels with his tools. The whole liquor-logged aggregation have totally failed to square one joint in the new cabinet, and the blustering boss is faced with the fact that there is not enough clear, straight, seasoned timber in his whole unwieldy load for this first requisite to parliamentary housekeeping

Unique Situation In Hill Pavement

Disputed Ownership of Street Creates Interest at Foot of Dundas Street Hill-

The paving of Dundas street hill with brick, authorized by bylaw on Monday night, involves a unique situation at the foot of the hill, where it as been held that some of the street is owned by Whit.

Mr. Lancaster has said that if the city paved the street, he would give his property to the municipality, providing he was His offer has not been accepted, it seems, and other property-owners are inserted in seeing how the foot of the hill is going to fare when the work reacned that point. It is three years and more since the pavement of the hill was first authorized. The difference of opinion over the owner-

snip of the property at the foot of the hill was partly responsible for the delay, it is
