LONDON. Dec. 27 .- 10:05 p.m. - Assisted by light cruisers, desiroyers and submarines, seven British naval airmen, piloting seaplanes, made a daring attack Christmas day on the German naval base at Curhaven, at the mouth of belated cold spell reported in Poland is the Elbe. Six of the airmen returned safely, but the seventh, Commander Hewlett, it is feared, has been lost as his machine was found off Heligoland, wrecked.
