

WOODSTOCK SEES BRIGHT PROSPECTS

4 Trying for Intermediates—Juniors and "Wossa" Teams Look Good.

Woodstock, Dec. 19.—The local hockey team are down to solid practice, with keen ice at the arena available every night. Prospects for both intermediate and junior hockey this year are very encouraging at the present time.

A squad of about fourteen intermediate players have been working out, and the following gives a line on the players: In goal Chilton Childs will perform, while on the defence there is quite a scramble for berths. Harry King is back again and looks just as good as three years ago. A newcomer to local hockey, if he makes the team and keeps up in his studies, is "Chick" Garvey of Sarnia. Garvey has finished his studies at Sarnia College and has enrolled at Woodstock College where he expects to secure his matriculation. Next year, if he is successful, he will head for McMaster University, Toronto.

If Harvey plays hockey as well as he played rugby this fall he will clinch the left defence position. On the forward line are Art Parker, Dr. Norman Douglas, "Dutch" Trump and Cohen, with a number of others trying for the wing position. Up at the college a number of promising youngsters are in attendance and the local management hopes to secure several boys from Dr. Wear's school to build up a junior team.

Last year college won the "Wossa" League hockey championship, and they expect to repeat this year. Gerald Carson, the third member of the family to attend Woodstock College, is playing a nice game.

Then there is Fuglesy, the third member of this family to attend college, who is also looking for a berth. Fishley, a youngster from Chesley, and Binkley are students who expect to retain the "Wossa" trophy for the college team. Other juniors are Collins, Lynch, Roadhouse, Smith, Douglas and a host of others from the above. Woodstock expects to gather a fairly good junior team.
