There is every reason to believe that the excitement consequent upon the riot on Saturday night is quieting down. The mayor has given assurances that the Orientals will be fully protected, and special police have been sworn in. The Japanese and Chinese are expected to return to work tomorfow morning. Tonight no white men are allowed to enter the streets where the Chinese and Japanese live

No Assistance Needed.

Superintendent of Provincial Police Hussey wired to Vancouver yesterday for authentic information on the Japanese riots and received in reply a telegram to the effect that the case was not nearly as serious as the newspaper reports would have it. The Vancouver police department was, it was stated, amply able to cope with any situation that might arise.
