ties, and that the selling would be done strough jobbing houses.

"We have, by protecting our manufacturers, been able to place them on a fair road to prosperity. Do you think it policy on our part to open our doors to a country that excels in the production of nearly every line and industry?" asked a prominent jobbes.

Mr. Lepins, M.P., editor of the labor paper, Le Trait d'Union, spoke as follows:

Our manufacturing interests are not yet established on a basis firm enough to compete with American manufacturers. In consequence of this were we to allow the American manufacturers tree access to our markets our workmen would be the sufferers, from the fact that the employer would be compelled to re-Citic 28 1.4. BREAKFAST,

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and sucrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocon, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast is bles with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to festat every bendency to disease. Hundreds of subthermiadies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak poist. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a pupperly nourished frame."—CIVI Service Castette.
