REAL ESTATE for 1889 has steadily advanced in Toronto and will continue to do so, provided our parliamentary men give more attention to the advancement of agriculture, trade and commerce. Some of our most taidnied men exhaust their strength in tiresome 5-hour speeches on mere party questions, without the slightest benefit to the country, but on the other hand involving terrible waste of time and money. In the development of our entite trade our respected citizen, Alderman Frankland, has done more for the country, in a practical business way than any of our legislators.
