Spurr attended the excursion trip to the Experimental Farm at Kentville on Wednesday last, in spite of the heavy rain fall. Congratulations to the winners in the recent voting contest for the Monitor. We were pretty sure that it would be satisfactory to all concerned. Mr. Harvey Morse has lately opened an ice cream parlor, at his home on "the corner," where the cooling refreshment is served on Tuesday and Saturday evenings. Miss Hortense Spurr, who has been under the tuition of Principal H. L. Bustin during the past year, also wrote "A" at the Examination. We wish them all success. Miss Spurr has been teacher in the primary department during the past year. Mrs. Leonard Goucher is at present entertaining her sister, Miss Gladys Wass, who has been spending a few months at Aylesford, and Miss Carrie Wass of Lawrence, Mass. Also her brother, Mr. Percy Wass, of Winnipeg, and her aunt, Mrs. Jones, of Granville, Sask. Miss Winnifred Jacques leaves soon for Mount Rose, Annapolis County, where she will spend the month of July the guest of her friend, Miss Banks. We will miss Miss Jacques from our social circle, but we wish her a very pleasant outing, and safe return to Melvern. Wild strawberries are ripe, and very plentiful in this locality, while several crates of cultivated berries have been shipped during the past week. Those engaged in strawberry culture in the vicinity of Melvern are; Deacon C. C. Chute, Messrs. Eugene and J. Abernethy, Edwin Baker, Edwin Harris, W. H. Martin, and others. Many have also, the "strawberry patch" for home use, showing that they fully appreciate the "queen of berries" on their table. On Friday afternoon of last week the ladies of the Red Cross Society in this place, were very pleasantly entertained at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Outhit, "Hillside" as Mrs. Outhit has long since proven by Mrs. Outhit. Your correspondent regrets being unavoidably absent, but it is hardly necessary to add that the social time was enjoyed by all present, as Mrs. Outhit has long since proven herself to be an ideal hostess. The following pupils from our Melvern school wrote at the Provincial Examinations in Middleton last week. Grade XI Vernon Pearson, Bessie Palmer, Dorothy Lantz. Grade X Marion Baker, Vera Palmer, Mable Brown. Grade IX Adelaide Baker, Ruby Chute, Grace McNeil.
