

REFORMATION IN TRADE.

Reform, reform is the cry of the day, While old fashioned habits are passing away;

Let us glance at Toronto, which a few years ago, Was dark muddy York, as you very well know;

It is beautiful, clean, bright, airy and green; While its fine public buildings, erected with taste,

Adorn the site of some old marshy waste. Its streets have been filled by the aid of our drains;

Even now, where the wives of Ontario live, And dash their white aprons on the long ice-bergs shore,

But reforms as important as those have been made, Which greatly have altered the aspect of trade;

The Bonnets for instance, which a few years ago Would cost you a dollar and a quarter, or so,

Now did you then think that the terms were hard, If you bought a good pair for a shilling per yard?

Will you call at Mr DONALD'S if it is but to try, From his well sorted stock how cheap you can buy;

It is a three story house, with the front painted white, Which makes its appearance both graceful and light;
