

PAYMENTS FOR THE RECORD.

We hope such as are in arrears for any of the first four volumes, will endeavour to settle their accounts at the meeting of Synod. We have to acknowledge the prompt manner in which some of the Missionary Catechists and others have lately added names to our subscription list, and we especially approve of their mode of doing business, viz: sending payment in advance. It is much the best plan for all parties.

The latter half of the current volume will be, if paid in advance, 1s. 10³/₄d. We have had a larger edition struck off in the expectation of additional subscribers.

As a matter of business "THE RECORD" can only be sustained at its present circulation and rate, by prompt payments, and the gratuitous services of local Agents. But it is not enough that the organ of the Church barely sustain itself. It can and ought to be made the means of aiding the funds to a very considerable extent.
