

A very good photoengraving of the late Bishop Surin and another of the late Bishop D'Herbomez are at the head of the book, and ought to contribute to render it more acceptable.

After the rainy summer which has been referring to in precedent issues, the country now enjoys the most beautiful fall weather.