

CONTENTS.

POETRY	Page.	EDITORIALS—Continued.	Page.	EDITORIALS—Continued.	Page.	EDITORIALS—Continued.	Page.
Annus Irec	110	The Rivers and Canals of British North America—Part III	152	The British Army	109	The Throne the key-stone of the British Constitution	602
A Clear Case of Cut Out	212	The Rivers and Canals of British North America—Part IV	168	The Volunteer News on Canadian Volunteer System	411	Fenians again on the War Path	639
At the Crimea	316	Professor Goldwin Smith	122	State of the British Army and Navy	425	Abolition of Volunteer Field Artillery	639
A Tale of Japan	337	The High Commission	123	Camps of Instruction	195	Necessity of garrisoning Fort Garry	630
Afloat	668	Gift of Red River Volunteers to the sufferers by the great fires	136	The Canadian solution of the problem	126	The Broad Arrow on English Volunteers	991
Bella, Horrida Bella	62	Red River Expedition	135	On Prince Napoleon's letter to Jules Favre	426	The Chicago conflagration	681
Barney Buntline and Billy Bowdler	172	The best shot in the Militia for 1870	139	The Army and Navy Journal and the Broad Arrow	411	Gladstone and the Fiji Islands	651
Before the Battle of Dorking	688	Dominion Rifle Association, 1871	147	A German invasion of England	459	Opinion of Canadian Military Organization abroad	652
Canadian Patriotic Song	700	Col. John Sewell	161	Canada and the United States	457	Prosperous condition of New Zealand	632
Disarmament	510	A Canadian Ambassador	168	General Trochu	457	Capture of O'Neill & Co. by U. S. troops	632
England, Awake	188	The London Times on the Congress of the United States and the ex-Fenian Convicts	173	Helligoland	457	"German Discipline"	625
England	269, 812	Blue Book on the Correspondence between the Canadian and Home Governments on the Fisheries	170	Newspaper correspondents and the Volunteer Militia	474	Washington Court and Russian Ambassador	635
From the Battle Field	44	The late Col. Bouchette	171	Mr. Cardwell's Army Reform Bill	471	Death of Mr. Charles Mars	633
How May was Made	291	Ontario Battalion of Rifles	171	The State of the British workman	481	Fenian raid in Manitoba	731
Lorraine—1871	236	The English Press and the United States	181	The Heirs of Wm. Penn	469	Volunteer Field Batteries	337
Life	652	The Ontario Battalion convicts	185	The Globe and the Volunteer Force	459	Ironclads and wooden vessels compared	637
Look no! Backward	732	The prosperity of Canada	185	The Abolition of the Purchase System	500	Washington Treaty and Algonqua claims	625
No less True than Blue	318	The Globe on "Affairs in Manitoba"	188	The Press and the Militia	501	France's enormous war indemnity to Prussia	698
News to Tell	414	Volunteer Cavalry	186	On "Kannell's" letter	501	Reinforcement for garrison at Fort Garry	688, 731
Never Give Up	476	The Cartier-Panishon Correspondence	200	On "Centurion's" letter	501	Transfer of Forts and Citadel of Quebec	688
Not to be Sold	716	On the Adjutant-General's Report	200	Col. Hamley's War Operations	520	The Broad Arrow and the Royal Warrant	712, 802
Our Own Canadian Home	216	The Pouchette Claim	202	The Canadian Volunteers at Wimbledon	100	Generals Lee and Jackson compared	712
O'd Tim the Tactototaler	361	The Story of Gen. Scott	202	"G. W." on Mr. Dawson's Report	521	"A Staff" for the English Army	713
O lo to th' Dominion of Canada	428	"A Lovell Volunteer"	193	Honor to Canadian Team	521	Death of Lieut.-Col. J. G. Irvine, P.A.D.C.	711
Oh! Be not the Flat	469	The Adjutant-General's Special Prize and the Canadian Volunteerism	216	Neutrality Laws	522	Modern Cavalry by Lt.-Col. Denison	711
Original Song	492	The Canadian Army	217, 421, 472	Mismanagement of British Ironclads	536	Napoleon to Sir John Burgoyne on the War	714
Rally the Greys	389	Naval Defences for the Dominion	217	Rev. Morley Panishon on Canada	537	The Northern Journal and Democracy	715
The Sergeant of the Fifteenth	12	Presentation to Captain Frazer	217	The Wimbledon Team difficult	537	Sir Hugh Allan and North Shore Railroad	723
The Riderless Steeds	76	Federation of the Colonies	218	History of Reserve Forces British Army	538	"5th or Royal Light Infantry," Montreal	729
The Battle	108	Great Britain as a warlike nation	218	Dinner to Capt. A. R. Macdonald at Picton	538	Stealing of the schooner L. H. Horton	729
The Rideau Falls	121	Federation of the British Empire	222, 332	Our Military Organization	552	Cuba and the United States	722
The Serenade	159	The United States	223	Cause of destruction of French Army	553	The English Constitution and Broad Arrow	720
True hearted Ben	201	Canada and the United States	223	Disorganization of British Army	553	"Honesty is the best policy"	721
The History of President Grant's Message	500	The route to the North West	234	Commercial prosperity of England	551	Captain Tom B. Strauge, Royal Artillery	731
The Last Review	391	Lt.-Col. Shaw	234	Re-organization of the Canadian Army	568	Prussian vs. English Guns	731
Treaty or no Treaty	412	England, France and Prussia	248	Cause of prosperity of Dominion of Canada	569	Free Trade	731
The Battle in the Channel	516	The Fisheries	249	Artillery	569	"Military Organs and the Volunteers"	714
The Sea is England's Glory	521	Brutal conduct of Prussian soldiers	250	Memorial of Col. Guttan	570	The late fires in the United States	715
The Death Struggle	650	Blue Book on the withdrawal of the troops	254	"Centurion" on Canadian Constitution	570	Militia Bill	715
The Fenian Aspect	630	The Joint High Commission and the Algonqua Claims	267	Constitutional Monarchy or Republicanism in England	581	Autumnal Manoeuvres of the British Army	715
The Black Alpena Lady	718	The San Juan Difficulty	280	U.S. Army and Navy Journal and Canada Pacific Railroad	585	"A Volunteer"	716
The complaint of the Sparrows at the Royal Artillery Park, Que.	793	Government Aid to Emigration	281	Indian Treaty North West Territory	585	Volunteering in Manitoba	716
The Golden Year	838	The Marlborough Rifle	281	High Taxation in United States	586	Vive la Republique	717
Volunteer's Song (Original)	672	Meeting of Staff Officers at Ottawa	281	The Broad Arrow and "Sir Roundal Palmer and the Royal Warrant"	600	Mr. Gladstone and his Constituents	730
Vive la Guerre	672	Republican education	290	U.S. Army and Navy Journal and "The Lessons of the Decade"	601	The Royal Warrant	701
Vanished Hopes	631	Republicanism in England	297	Horsford and War Volunteers—a good joke	601	Late Fenian Raid on Manitoba	701
What is a Year?	631	The Volunteer Year on the Canadian Volunteers	298	Description of U.S. Revenue steamer Galatin	602	"Centurion" on Canadian Army	702
While it is Daytime let us Work	681	The Manitoba News Letter and the Volunteers	311	Canadian Army Medicine Chest	602	Too much Economy	702
Wo! not give up old England	781	The Northern Pacific Railway	312	Experimental Military Manoeuvres	616	Analysis of Proficiency of the Canadian troops	711
		Colonial Emigration	328	United States and Canada compared as the most profitable country for emigrants	617	Quick despatch of troops for Fort Garry	712, 81
		Great Britain and the Colonies	329	Ottawa Brigade of Garrison Artillery	617	The present Age eminently progressive	772
		Major A. G. Irvine	330	The Autumnal Campaign in England	617	Army Re-organization	792, 895
		Report of Lt. Butler (6th Regt.) on the Red River Territory	341	Mr. Cardwell and the Navy	632	Canadian Army Organization	792
		On the last part of the Narrative of the Red River Expedition	344	The Prescott Camp	631	The New British Army	791
		The Washington Treaty	315, 410, 457	The Autumn Campaign in England	614	United States method of treating the Aborigines	791
		The Queen's Birthday	346	Value of Field Batteries	619	Check to Republicanism in Great Britain	810
		England's policy towards the Colonies	350	Improvement of Field Artillery	619	Field Fortifications	810
		Emigration	351, 633	"The Abandoned Ground in Berks"	619	"War Office Blunder"	810
		The Toronto Telegraph on the Adjutant-General's Report	376	The war of 182-15	619	Withdrawal of regular troops	812
		The end of the Parisian insurrection	374	Manitoba Indian Territory	652	Why the 62nd was disbanded	819
		The duties of Volunteer Officers	377	Removal of troops from Quebec	691	Illness of H.R.H. the Prince of Wales	820
		The Buffalo Express on the Canadian Volunteers	378	Value of dealing justly with the Aborigines	615	Second Expedition to Fort Garry	821
		The Toronto Telegraph and the Niagara Canal	392	"Age of Great Military Monarchies"	635	The Asiatic Recorder and the rifle competition	821
		English Regular Army and Volunteers	393	The St. Croix Courier on health of the Queen	635	Staff promotion in the Canadian Army	822
		Montreal Herald on the Washington Treaty	403			Visit of the Grand Duke Alexis	822