

pressive service conducted by the Rev. T. A. Higgins' all that was mortal of the body was given back to the earth and the sleeper left to her sleep.

The hand of death has fallen heavily upon many of late but when its prize is in the prime of youth our comment is exceptionally sad. To the bereaved family and friends the Athenæum extends sincere consolations.

---