THE LADIES' JOURNAL

When Dancing is Wrong.

It's all very well to say there is no harm in dancing. There isn't. But there is harm in having about you, a sweet pure girl, kept as much as possible from the wickedness of the world, the arm of a man who may be a profligate, and not possess the first instinct of a gentleman. He may, as you say, dance divinely, but even for a partner in a round dance, more than that is necessary. My little girl, dancing indiscriminately will teach you to forget how to blush, and with that knowledge departs one of your greatest charms. Dance, sing and be merry, but remember, not only does the world judge us by the company we keep, bat just as you and I are made better and nobler by being with those who are true and good, so we are insensibly made meaner and poorer in heart and brain when we consort with those of less degree in morals.

Work and Worth are twin brothers. Only those who keep house can understand what it is to entertain visi-

When plants bud and flower beautifully in cold, dark cellars, then will happiness develop and abound in selfish hearts and homes.

LADIES' JOURNAL Bible Competition,

No. 25.

A Wonderful List of Rewards Arranged in an Equitable Manner.

DON'T DELAY!!! SEND NOW!!

The twenty-fifth competition opens more popular than over. There are few dissatisfied competitors; some would not be pleased if they were to get a piano every time. Over thirty-seven thousand persons have voluntarily testified as to the value of the rewards and the fairness with which they have been distributed.

This competition will only remain open till the thirty-first day of March inclusive, but the sooner you send the botter, although your opportunities for securing a reward are almost at good one time as another between now and the thirty-first of March provided your answers to the questions are correct. ALL THESE PRIZE will be given sure, but don't run away with the idea that everybody who competes is sure to get a prize. Every prize offered will be given, of that you may be absolutely certain, but remember, first come first served in each of the three divisions, so burry in your answers.

The questions are as follows:—Where in the Bible are the following words first found, DEER Horn, Wide.

To the first person sending in the correct answer to these questions will be given number one of these rewards—the plane. To the next person, one of the sowing machines, and so on till all these rewards are given a way.
