

Liverpool prices of flour and grain on 4th inst. as compared with those of a year ago, show a decline of 6d to 1s per cental in flour, 1s 5d to 1s 7d in spring wheat, 1s 7d to 2s 1d red winter, 1s 8d to 1s 10d in white ditto, 1s 9d to 1s 11d in club wheat, and 10d in oats, while corn shows an advance of 2 to 2½d, barley 4d, and peas 1s per cental.

HARDWARE.—The movement in heavy goods is especially active, in shelf goods fair, cutlery and plated ware in request as well as other holiday merchandise. Prices of metals are firm. Remittances usually good.

HIDES AND SKINS.—The price green hides is ½c. lower, buyers paying this week only 8c. for cows, and 9c. for steers. Sales of cured are scarcely so free, car lots of cows bring 9c. and small parcels of steers 9½ to 9¾c. Sheepskins, from $1 to 1.20 continues to be paid, but the dealers insist that this is too high. Tallow, unchanged.

LEATHER.—There are symptoms of overstocking, with a slack demand for stock. Prices for certain kinds, especially prime Spanish sole, heavy weights, continue firm. In other kinds there is less enquiry, and prices are less firm. Harness is in plentiful supply and the quality firm, prime makers still bring full rates. Ordinary accumulates and prices are weak. The season for cutting upper is over and prices are less firm with a plentiful supply. Tanning materials are unchanged. Oils steady.

HOPS.—The high prices continue to rule, but there is not much enquiry. Brewers holding off as long as they can. There is no stock of moment held here, and what there is probably is in the hands of men who will hold them. 1st class cannot be got in this market at under 90c. The following is Messrs. W. H. & H. Lemay's report of Nov. 15th at London: Demand for new English hops is quiet for the moment, but prices remain firm. The demand here for Americans is good, £30 being made of choice qualities, and the lowest being held for £28. The Nuremberg market is very firm at the late advance, the Continental brewers taking all that is offered. A good demand exists for sound old English hops. Brewers are anxious to secure the few that are left, to economize.

WOOL.—The present season of the year is not expected to be an active one for wool, and this year is no exception. Fleece is moving very slowly, 19½c. being obtained for coarse heavy wools and 21½c. for sortings. Prices of foreign wools and extras are as usual, the demand from factories not especially brisk.
