

AMERICAS

| DATE                 | EVENT / PLACE  | DESCRIPTION   |
|----------------------|--|---|
| 01/03/9731/03/97 | "Small Arctic Masterworks"Orca Aart GalleryChicago, USA                              | An exhibition of beautifully carved stone and antler sculpture talented Canadian Inuit artists, such as Lucy Tasseor, Joe Kavik and Toonoo Sharky. Also featuring argillite and sterling silver jewelry by the native tribes of British Columbia.   |
| 03/03/97             | Irish RoversMacomb Center for the Performing ArtsMt. Clemens, Michigan, USA          | The Vancouver-based Irish band in concert.  |
| 03/03/97             | Quartetto GelatoWharton Center, Michigan State UniversityEast Lansing, Michigan, USA | Another performance by the Toronto-based quartet. On 04/03/97 at the Kleinhans Music Hall in Buffalo, NY, Quartetto Gelato presents a variety of delightful melodic flavours — from tangos to "Danny Boy" and gypsy fiddling to operatic arias. They have also been invited to perform on 17/04/97 at the Broadway Centre for the Performing Arts in Tacoma, Washington. On 20/04/97 they will participate at the Anchorage Concert Association in Anchorage, Alaska and on 09/02/97 at the Kennedy Center Terrace Theater in Washington. |
| 06/03/97             | Chiefly Feasts: The Enduring Kwakiutl PotlatchThomas M. Evans GalleryWashington, USA | This remarkable travelling exhibition, bringing to life the stunning artworks, dramatic dances, lavish hospitality, and sumptuous cuisine of the traditional Northwest Coast potlatch. "Chiefly Feasts" displays vibrant and exquisite masks, bowls, belts, whistles, daggers, rattles, blankets, and headdresses.  |
| 07/03/97             | Ann MichaelsKnopfNew York, USA   | Award winning poet/author, Ann Michaels from Canada will be in New York to promote her magnificent new novel "Fugitive Pieces".   |
| 09/03/97             | Angela ChangWalter Reade TheatreNew York, USA  | Edmonton pianist Angela Chang is featured in an afternoon concert at Lincoln Center.  |
| 11/03/9713/03/97 | "Mirror Game"Location to be announcedDayton, Ohio, USA                               | Children's performance by Green Thumb Theatre Company of Vancouver. They will also be performing "Showdown" from 14/03/97 to 18/03/97 at a venue to be confirmed in Springfield, Ohio.  |
| 13/03/97             | Carol Shields, AuthorFortnightly of ChicagoChicago, USA                              | Award-winning author Carol Shields, will deliver a presentation to the Fortnightly, a literary society founded in 1873.   |
| 13/03/9715/03/97 | Indianapolis SymphonyCircle TheatreIndianapolis, Indiana, USA                        | The guest Conductor will be Hans Graf, from the Calgary Philharmonic Orchestra.   |
| 13/03/97             | "Eugene Onegin"Metropolitan OperaNew York, USA                                       | Canadian director Robert Carsen and designer Michael Levine receive their New York debut at the Metropolitan Opera debut of "Onegin".   |
| 14/03/97             | Grand Rapids Chamber Music SocietySt. Cecilia Music Society                              | Performance of Canadian chamber musicians L'Ensemble Arion.   |