

(9) Receiving unit or unit for which the arms are destined: determination of the persons, groups or organizations to whom the arms traffic is destined.

- Verify compliance with this Act with regard to irregular forces and the non-use of their own territory in destabilizing actions against another State, and consider any report in that connection.

To that purpose, the following criteria should be taken into account:

- (1) Installations means, bases, camps or logistic and operational support facilities for irregular forces, including command centres, radiocommunications centres and radio transmitters.
- (2) Determination of propaganda activities or political material, economic or military support for actions directed against any State of the region.
- (3) Identification of persons, groups and governmental sectors involved in such actions.

- Verify compliance with the commitments concerning terrorism, subversion and sabotage contained in this Act.
- The Commission and the States Parties may request, as they deem appropriate, the assistance of the International Committee of the Red Cross in helping to solve humanitarian problems affecting the Central American countries.

(d) Rules and procedures

- The Commission shall receive any duly substantiated report concerning violations of the security commitments assumed under this Act, shall communicate it to the Parties involved and shall initiate such investigation as it deems appropriate.
- It shall also be empowered to carry out, on its own initiative the investigations it deems appropriate.
- The Commission shall carry out its investigations by making on-site inspections, gathering testimony and using any other procedure which it deems necessary for the performance of its functions.
- Without prejudice to its quarterly and special reports, the Commission shall, in the event of any reports of violations or of non-compliance with the security commitments of this Act, prepare a report containing recommendations addressed to the Parties involved.
- The Commission shall be accorded every facility and prompt and full co-operation by the Parties for the appropriate performance of its functions. It shall also ensure the confidentiality of all information elicited or received in the course of its investigations.
- The Commission shall transmit its reports and recommendations to the States Parties and to the Governments of the Contadora
