

only with the prior written consent of the supplier Party. Such consent shall include the conditions under which the resultant uranium enriched above 20% or plutonium may be stored.

3. A Party shall not withhold its consent to a matter referred to in paragraph 1 or 2 for the purpose of securing commercial advantage.

4. If a Party considers that it is unable to grant consent to a matter referred to in paragraph 1 or 2, that Party shall provide the other Party with an immediate opportunity for full consultation on that issue.

ARTICLE IX

1. The appropriate governmental authorities of both Parties shall consult annually, or at any other time at the request of either Party, to ensure the effective implementation of this Agreement. Either Party may invite the Agency to participate in such consultations.

2. Each Party shall, upon request, inform the other Party of the overall conclusions of the most recent report by the Agency on its verification activities in the territory of that Party relevant to the nuclear material subject to this Agreement.

3. The appropriate governmental authorities of both Parties shall establish an administrative arrangement to ensure the effective fulfilment of the obligations of this Agreement. An administrative arrangement established pursuant to this paragraph may be changed with the agreement of the appropriate governmental authorities of both Parties.

4. The cost of reports and records which either Party is required to provide pursuant to the administrative arrangement referred to in paragraph 3 shall be borne by the Party which is required to provide the reports or records.

5. Each Party shall take all appropriate precautions in accordance with its laws and regulations to preserve the confidentiality of technology, of commercial and industrial secrets and of other confidential information received as a result of the operation of this Agreement.

ARTICLE X

1. A supplier Party shall have the right in the event of:

- (a) detonation by the recipient Party of a nuclear explosive device; or
- (b) determination in accordance with paragraph C of Article XII of the Statute of the Agency, that there has been non-compliance with, or repudiation of, a relevant safeguards agreement concluded with the Agency, by the recipient Party;
