

(b) otherwise agreed between the Parties.

(3) Technology shall remain subject to this Agreement until otherwise agreed between the Parties.

ARTICLE IX

(1) Each Party shall take all measures necessary, commensurate with the assessed threat prevailing from time to time, to ensure the physical protection of nuclear material subject to this Agreement and shall, as a minimum, apply levels of physical protection as set out in Annex E to this Agreement.

(2) The Parties shall consult at the request of either one concerning matters related to the physical protection of nuclear material, material, equipment or technology subject to this Agreement including those concerning physical protection during international transportation.

ARTICLE X

(1) The Parties shall consult at any time at the request of either Party to ensure the effective fulfilment of the obligations of this Agreement. The IAEA may be invited to participate in such consultations upon the request of the Parties.

(2) The appropriate governmental authorities shall establish administrative arrangements to facilitate the effective implementation of this Agreement and shall consult annually or at any other time at the request of either. Such consultations may take the form of an exchange of correspondence.

(3) Each Party shall, upon the other Party's request, inform the other Party of the conclusions of the most recent report by the IAEA on its verification activities in the territory of the first Party which are relevant to the nuclear material subject to this Agreement.
