

civilian component, or their dependents who are confined or detained under Japanese authority.

3. Nothing in the provisions of paragraph 9(g) concerning the presence of a representative of the Government of the sending State at the trial of a member of the force of that State or of the civilian component thereof, or a dependent prosecuted under the jurisdiction of Japan, shall be so construed as to prejudice the provisions of the Japanese Constitution with respect to public trials.

Re paragraph 10(a) and 10(b):

1. The military authorities of the United Nations forces will normally make all arrests within facilities in use by and guarded under the authority of the United Nations forces. This shall not preclude the Japanese authorities from making arrests within facilities in cases where the competent authorities of the United Nations forces have given consent, or in cases of pursuit of a flagrant offender who has committed a serious crime.

Where persons whose arrest is desired by the Japanese authorities and who are not subject to the jurisdiction of the United Nations forces are within facilities in use by the United Nations forces, the military authorities of the United Nations forces will undertake, upon request, to arrest such persons. All persons arrested by the military authorities of the United Nations forces, who are not subject to the jurisdiction of the United Nations forces, shall immediately be turned over to the Japanese authorities.

The military authorities of the United Nations forces may, under due process of law, arrest in the vicinity of a facility any person in the commission or attempted commission of an offence against the security of that facility. Any such person not subject to the jurisdiction of the United Nations forces shall immediately be turned over to the Japanese authorities.

2. The Japanese authorities will normally not exercise the right of search, seizure, or inspection with respect to any persons or property within facilities in use by and guarded under the authority of the United Nations forces or with respect to property of the United Nations forces wherever situated, except in cases where the competent authorities of the United Nations forces consent to such search, seizure, or inspection by the Japanese authorities of such persons or property.

Where search, seizure, or inspection with respect to persons or property within facilities in use by the United Nations forces or with respect to property of the United Nations forces in Japan is desired by the Japanese authorities, the military authorities of the United Nations forces will undertake, upon request, to make such search, seizure, or inspection. In the event of a judgment concerning such property, except property owned or utilised by the Government of a sending State or its instrumentalities, the authorities of the sending State concerned will turn over such property to the Japanese authorities for disposition in accordance with the judgment.
