

7. Each Party shall promptly notify, by telephone or in writing (including electronic mail), the other Party, within 24 hours where practicable, if there is a situation that disrupts the intended transfer of Information between the Parties.

ARTICLE 5

Access, Correction and Notation

To the extent specified in their respective domestic law, the Parties shall provide persons who are the subject of Information exchanged under this Agreement with opportunities to request access to the Information, to correct erroneous Information or to request to add a notation to indicate a correction request was made.

ARTICLE 6

Accuracy of Information

1. Each Party shall provide the other Party with access to the most current and accurate Information available in its databases.
2. In the event that a Party has reason to believe that the other Party is using or relying on inaccurate Information exchanged under this Agreement, it shall promptly notify the other Party, in writing and provide correcting Information, if it is available.
3. When a Party receives correcting Information, the Party shall destroy or correct any inaccurate Information and any Information derived from it. The Party shall notify the other Party, in writing, that it has made the corrections.

ARTICLE 7

Retention and Disposition

1. Each Party shall retain Information exchanged under this Agreement in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and its domestic law. Each Party shall maintain a system of database and document control that provides for the orderly disposition of Information exchanged under this Agreement.
2. A Party shall destroy, as soon as practicable, any data exchanged pursuant to a Query that it determines is not relevant to that Query or was erroneously provided.