

A Message was brought from the House of Commons by their Clerk, with a Bill intituled: "An Act to amend the Act incorporating the Pontiac Pacific Junction Railway Company," to which they desire the concurrence of this House.

The said Bill was read for the first time.

On motion of the Honorable Mr. Abbott, seconded by the Honorable Mr. Smith, it was Ordered, That the Forty first Rule of this House be dispensed with in so far as it relates to the said Bill, and that the same be read a second time presently.

The said Bill was then read a second time accordingly.

Ordered, That the said Bill be referred to the Committee on Railways, Telegraphs and Harbors.

The Order of the Day being read for the consideration of the amendments made in the Committee of the Whole House, on the Bill intituled: "An Act to amend the Chinese Immigration Act,"

The Honorable Mr. Abbott moved, seconded by the Honorable Mr. Smith,

That the House do not concur in the amendment made to the first section of the said Bill in Committee of the Whole:

The question of concurrence being put thereon, the House divided, and the names being called for, they were taken down, as follow:—
