My dear Ellacott:-

I am this morning in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant and thank you for the article clipped from a recent number of the Atlantic Monthly.

I note your P.S. with reference to some scheme of Brigadier-General R. Critchley. I am not surprised at your feeling constrained to write an article condemning Critchley's scheme. I should consider very carefully before joining him in any venture.

You will be glad to know that the campaign to raise funds for McGill has gone very well, indeed. The graduates in many places have done splendidly.

With all good wishes, I am,

Ever yours faithfully,

Principal.
