

June 7th, 1926.

President L. C. Klinck,
University of British Columbia,
Vancouver, B. C.

Dear President Klinck:-

With reference to the matter on which I am writing you I think I can do no better than send you the attached correspondence.

Apparently Sir William Ellis is anxious that ~~Mr. Fulwell~~ should have a letter of introduction to the President of the University of British Columbia. I am sorry that I have not seen Mr. Fulwell, but I am sure if he carries letters of commendation from Sir Alfred Yarrow and Sir William Ellis that he is a worthy gentleman. I am writing him today telling him that I have written you about him.

While travelling in Western Ontario last week I ran across on the train someone from Vancouver who told me that he thought you were in this part of the country. If so, I hope to have the pleasure of seeing you shortly. He also told me that Mrs. Klinck had not been well lately. Please remember me very kindly to her and I trust that she is now enjoying her usual good health.

With all good wishes, I am,

Yours faithfully,