New York City.

Dear Mr. Shibley:-

I wish to acknowledge your letter of the 19th November and to thank you very much for your contribution to our fund. In view of all circumstances, I think it has gone very well, indeed.

I should not care to promise to visit the Canadian Society in March or April. In fact, I feel that I must refuse many invitations to speak at different places until I become more thoroughly familiar with the work in connection with the position I hold. I find there is so much to do in connection with the University that I must give it all my time and attention.

With all good wishes, I am,

Yours faithfully,

Principal.
