

own, but she would go and ask her mother for some.

She ran up stairs, and soon came back, and said to the poor woman: "My mother has no more pennies to give me. But here is a muffin for you; and it is hot too."

The little girl never told any body that she had given away her muffin. And though she heard the man call, Muffins! two or three times that night, she did not ask her mother to buy one for her.

Section 3.

The child praising his God.

"Come, let us praise God, for he is very great; let us bless him, for he is very made all things; the sun to shine by day, and the moon to shine by night.