

THE OLD NEST

down and write her a letter or send her a long telegram saying, "I am well, I am thinking of you and I want you to know how much I love you!" or, above all, if you should be persuaded to go home and see her—why, then, this story would have given more real joy than perhaps any other story ever written.

THE END