

ARTICLE I.

As soon as the preliminaries shall be signed and ratified, sincere friendship shall be re-established between his Britannick Majesty and his Most Christian Majesty, their kingdoms, states, and subjects, by sea and by land in all parts of the world. Orders shall be sent to the armies and squadrons, as well as to the subjects of the two Powers, to stop all hostilities, and to live in the most perfect union, forgetting what is passed, of which their Sovereigns give them the order and example; and for the execution of this article, sea passes shall be given on each side for the ships which shall be dispatched to carry the news of it to the possessions of the said Powers.

ARTICLE II.

His Majesty the King of Great Britain shall preserve in full right the Island of Newfoundland, and the adjacent islands, in the same manner as the whole was ceded to him by the 13th article of the treaty of Utrecht, save the exceptions which shall be stipulated by the 5th article of the present treaty:

ARTICLE III.

His Most Christian Majesty, in order to prevent quarrels which have hitherto arisen between the two nations of England and
