

CANADA LAW BOOK COMPANY, LIMITED

---

UNDERHILL ON THE LAW OF TORTS

CANADIAN EDITION, 1912.

Underhill is worth owning. Student and Practitioner alike recognise the value of this standard work. No other book on the Law of Torts is quite so useful in your library.

Price, Cloth, $5.00; Half-Calf, $6.50.

---

NOTABLE ENGLISH AND SCOTTISH TRIALS

A series of famous British Trials, profusely illustrated, and containing the evidence given in full, together with Counsel's addresses to Jury, and the Judge's charge. No more entertaining, instructive and beneficial reading can be found for lawyers or students at law. Volumes of each series can be purchased separately.

Price, $2.50.

---

ODGERS, PRINCIPLES OF PLEADING

(7th Ed., 1912).

A modern work on the system of pleadings introduced by the Judicature Acts. The leading principles are carefully laid down by this eminent author. Rules of law are stated, explanations, historical matter, and practical hints are given, as well as illustrations of the application of these principles; all relevant decisions have been noted down to September 1, 1911.

Price, Cloth, $5.00.

---

POLLOCK ON CONTRACTS

The one book on this subject that is complete and yet written in a clear, simple style. There is no better book on the Law of Contract for students.

Price, Cloth, $6.50.