

It should be possible for each primary teacher to secure two or three of these books for her school-room library by laying the matter before her Principal or Trustees. If the class is large, from six to twelve copies of each book should be obtained; in rural schools one or two copies will be sufficient.

65. BOOKS CONTAINING STORIES TO BE READ OR TOLD TO CHILDREN

- (1) Stories to Tell to Children. By Sara C. Bryant. $1.00.
Fifty-one stories, with some suggestions for telling.
- (2) How to Tell Stories to Children. By Sara C. Bryant. $1.00. Boston: Houghton, Mifflin Co.
A book of suggestions to teachers, with some good stories.
- (3) Kindergarten Stories and Morning Talks. By Sara E. Wiltse. 75 cents. Boston: Ginn & Co.
It contains many favourite stories in interesting form, suitable for telling to young children. Work is correlated for one year.
- (4) Stories for Opening Exercises. By Geo. F. Bass. 30 cents. Chicago: A. Flanagan & Co.
- (5) Reproduction Stories. By Maude Emory Hauck. 15 cents. Chicago: A. Flanagan & Co.
- (6) Just So Stories. By Kipling. $1.20. New York: Doubleday, Page & Co.
- (7) Wonder Book. By Hawthorne. 15 cents.
- (8) Tanglewood Tales. By Hawthorne. 15 cents. Toronto: Macmillan Co.
- (9) Fifty Famous Stories Retold. By Jas. Baldwin. 35 cents.
- (10) Fairy Stories and Fables. By Jas. Baldwin. 35 cents. New York: American Book Co.