The Anglo-American of New York says:—Mr. Sims Richards sang "Tom Bowling;" he was in excellent voice and rendered the grand old song in truly magnificent style, and in reply to a well earned encore gave "Pull Away." Mr. Richards then appeared again, and so great was the applause that no less than three songs would satisfy the audience. We have not for a long time heard a more stirring song than that with which he opened, viz.: "Where'er St. George's Banner Waves." The effect of the song was electrical, and he had to follow with "Ould Ireland You're Me Darling," and the "Star Spangled Banner."

The Toronto Globe says:—An entertainment somewhat unique and novel in its character was given last evening in Shaftsbury Hall by Mr. Sims Richards and his family of four charming daughters. The programme consisted of songs by Mr. Richards and Miss Evangeline; violin solos, string quartettes, duets, mandolin and banjo, archery drill and shooting at the target, sword drill, readings, &c. Those who knew Mr. Richards' fine gifts as a sentimental singer would be surprised at his success in humorous songs and recitations. His charming family are certainly very talented.

This truly remarkable family will be assisted by Bro. Frank Wright of Court Harmony (Toronto) who is one of the leading comic vocalists of Canada. He is all the rage in Toronto, and is taking every one by storm. Hear him sing "Fatsy Brannigan" and "McManus."
