The Sale Priceson Men's Wear

Tuesday is the first day of that very important annual event, EATON'S JANUARY SALE. The men who give special atten. tion to our announcements during this sale will find themselves handsomely rewarded by a well-supplied wardrobe, and at surprisingly small expense. Here's an impressive beginning to the great list of absolute economies:

24,000 Linen Collars—Men's and Boys'—Each 5c

We've made preparations for the greatest sale of Collars ever enjoyed by the store. Most of them have just made the ocean voyage from Old England, and many were taken from our regular stock. Not one collar in the lot that isn't worth, at least, twice the sale-price; all are popular, up-to-date styles, including high turn-down, straight band, turn points and plain turn-down; all heights from 1½ to 2½ inches—sizes 12 to 19.

Extra space and extra help provided—but come early. Regu-
