ST. PAUL'S NEW ORGANIST.

Gerard Barton Will Take Charge at St. Paul's Church.

The rector and wardens of St. Paul's Church, East Toronto, have secured as organist, Gerard Barton, who has recently arrived from Honolulu.

Mr. Barton studied the organ under Dr. Edward Bennett and Sir Walter Barrett, and composition with Dr. J. Varley Roberts. In 1884 he came to America, where he finally settled on the Pacific Coast as a professional musician. He has held the position of organist in churches in Los Angeles, Santa Barbara and San Francisco, and for the last three years has been at the head of the musical department of Oahu College, and organist of St. Andrew's Cathedral, Honolulu. The list of his compositions includes many songs, both sacred and secular, a setting of the mass, part songs, etc., which are issued by some of the best publishing houses, both in America and Germany.

It is understood that Mr. Barton will become associated with the Conservatory of Music, as instructor in organ-playing and voice-culture, while Mrs. Barton, who has been studying for the past year in England with Miss Pepper, the eminent pianist, is now on her way to join her husband here. She is a rarely talented accompanist, and is associated with her husband in his professional work. Mr. Barton will take charge of the organ to-morrow (Sunday).

WON'T SEND ANY MORE.

"Shocking Reports" of Labor Conditions Scare Leeds Committee.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable).

London, Oct. 19.—At the Liberal conference at York, Arnold Rowntree read a letter from Hamar Greenwood, in which he said he found Canada prospering under liberal laws relating to education, the land and licensing questions.

"Would that our great home land possessed the democratic domestic legislation of her daughter colonies. Then, indeed, would England blossom as the rose, and millions of her people have hopes and opportunities now denied them," he said.

During the course of the meeting, J. Hardwick, member of the Leeds district council, who has been making "shocking reports" from Canada, where all the land near the railway was taken up, and they worked sixteen hours a day. He did not think they would ever send any more emigrants. Among the passengers on the Empress of Ireland sailing to-day were Sir George Drummond, William MacKenzie, and Allan Cameron, C.P.R. European traffic manager.

For the first time in Canada, the supreme degree of the H.R.A. will be featured with an ornate musical setting in the St. Patrick Chapter of Royal Arch Masons this evening.

Ceremonially the exemplification will be in charge of the regular officers of the chapter, and the music will be furnished by the St. Patrick Quartet, introduced appropriate selections specially arranged for the work of the evening.

The banquet following the exemplification will be up to the standard for which the chapter is noted. After entertainment program includes the St. Patrick Quartet, Comps. Fiddes, Twigg and Harvey with Comp. E. E. Bowles as accompanist, an orchestra of 15 pieces, and Mr. Geo. A. Fox, the eminent violinist, will also be present and in his own artistic manner will play the solo. The ceremonial and after entertainment music will be in charge of Comp. Marc T. Lester, musical director.

The ceremonial will start sharp at 8 p. m. and members and visitors must be seated before that hour.

$10,000 BAIL FOR GUROFSKY.

Italian Is Getting Along Well—Police Court Cases.

Joseph Gurofsky was arraigned in police court yesterday on the charge of "shocking with intent" Dominic Trevani. Mr. Robinette, his counsel, said not guilty for the accused and declined to elect. A remand was made for a week.

Mr. Corley said the offence was too serious to consider a cash bail of even $10,000. Mr. Robinette later saw the attorney-general, who fixed the bail at $10,000.

Trevani is getting on well at St. Michael's Hospital. A charge of wounding Louis Gurofsky has been laid against him.

For carrying and pointing a revolver John Goss, an Italian, was fined $30 and costs by Magistrate Bennett. Samuel Jackson was sent for trial on the charge of stealing $280 from the Iron Moulders' Association, of which he was treasurer. The offence was committed six years ago.

E. Oscar Davidson, who worked for Barber Leonard Swan, 254 East King-street, will spend six months in jail for stealing $7 and some razors from his employer.

HAD HORSE HEART DISEASE?

Defence of Railway Co. in Suit for Damages.

W. H. McDougall had a valuable horse pasturing in a field adjoining the C. P. R. Company's tracks, near White River. The company's workmen left the fence down, and the animal strayed upon the railway. The engineer of an approaching train whistled to frighten the horse from the tracks. When almost overtaken, the animal, to escape being struck, jumped over the embankment, breaking its neck in the fall. It was afterwards cremated by the sectionmen.

Charcoal Kills Bad Breath.

Bad Odor of Indigestion, Smoking, Drinking or Eating Can Be Instantly Stopped.

Other people notice your bad breath when you do not notice it at all. It is nauseating to other people, and stand before them, and while you are talking, give them a whiff or two of your bad breath. You can stop it at once by swallowing one or two Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges, the most powerful gas and odor absorber ever prepared.

CUTS THROAT IN HER FALL.

Breaking Loose, Gentle Woman and Causes Her Death.

Mrs. Margaret McCoy, 46 Farley-avenue, fell downstairs in her house about 3 o'clock yesterday morning. She was carrying a lamp, and in the fall, she cut her throat. Her husband found her in a pool of blood. Dr. McCullough and Bowler were called in, but could not revive the injured woman, who had lost a great quantity of blood. She remained unconscious until she died, three hours later.
