

QUEEN STS. ... DERBY ... CUMBERLAND ...

UP-TO-DATE COMMENT ON MATTERS RELATING TO THAT NOBLE ANIMAL THE HORSE.

But for the fearless comment made in this column when the bill of the Canadian Jockey Club was first introduced before the House, it is possible that a high-grade, high-concentration, measure would have slipped through the Private Bills Committee without any worthy objection.

The English Jockey Club, the time-honored prototype of numerous and widely scattered offspring, rules entirely by the common law of trespass. Persons warned of their trespass simply do not come on it. A man can ask whom he likes to dinner at his own house, and can exclude all others, no matter what the occasion.

The club would have been pleased to have received suggestions that it should be the subject in this country, but none were offered. There is no racing and breeding this bill will guard and protect better than Mr. Seagram's, but from the tone of his letter it does not appear to see it.

It will be observed that power to enforce its regulations on these chartered companies is not provided. Are we to have a new "crime" added to the list? Are we to be thrown into jail for venturing to hold a race meeting without the leave and permission of a proposed sporting sovereignty, with all the penalties and favoritism that must follow in its train?

It is a mixed and muddled re-hash of American precedents, but a racing and hunt club in Ontario and Quebec to take due precaution, "so that the people of Canada do not withdraw, by constitutional amendment, those very rights they have enjoyed as has been done in New York, New Jersey, Illinois, and other States to the south of us.

At hand until about an hour afterwards, the flap was temporarily held in position by horse shoe nails. Prognostically, the horse was not to his veterinary hospital, and there he remained for six months, when he was returned to his owner, being such a high colored animal—but during two months of the time he was blind, during his period of convalescence, more than half a gallon of the best Dubouché was administered in the cap of Professor Pritchard, and he took part in the Members' Plate at the Ontario Jockey Club's headquarters on the flat, the following September. And only twelve months and three days after his accident, he was the winner of the Wentworth Steeplechase at Hurst Park in the company of canters.

That English critics do not think any too highly of the American thoroughbred is shown by the fact that in London Field says: "Montauk has accepted the Suburban plate, which, with his light weight, he should have a chance. The 'dark ones,' Santa Anita, American and Sir Excess, have been less successful in their private invitation, and many of the best judges of the subject in this country have never been consulted. On the contrary, they have been studiously ignored. Yours very truly, J. O. S. SEAGRAM, Lt.-Col. Tisdale, M.P., Ottawa.

This is Mr. Hendrie's reply, which was addressed to the committee of the Canadian Jockey Club Chambers, Toronto, 26th February, 1894: "Mr. Seagram has seen fit to address some members of the Dominion Parliament, regarding to Bill No. 48, which has been introduced in the session of the Canadian Jockey Club. The matter has been under consideration of the Executive of the Club, and we think it desirable that our views upon that letter and the subject of the bill should be laid before you.
