Committee, though they seek no thanks, I would now tender a well-merited tribute of praise. They have discharged their multi-farious tasks most loyally and have worked together with remarkable unanimity. Had it not been for their faithful co-operation our arguement the sector. it not been for their faithful co-operation our arduous undertaking would have proved far beyond the range of our capabilities. Each and every one of them has through-out labored with unflagging zeal and mani-fested an anxious determination to do his utmost to attain the desired end. But Mr. Alfred Myers deserves special mention on account of his censeless endeavors to fur-ther the good work, he having day by day closely followed it in all its minutest de-tails and afforded the able architect of the building valuable counsel and assistance. the President.

BENJAMIN'S TRIBUTE A Happy Experience.

AR. BENJAMIN'S TRIBUTE A Happy Experience. Words utterly fail me as I now come to speak of the remarkable generosity of our Christian fellow-citizens, both in the Do-minion and elsewhere, and particularly here in Toronto, notwithstanding that it is supposed, in some quarters, to be character-ized by bigotry and intolerance. Our ex-perience abundantly proves the absolute faistiv of such an imputation. Astounding have been the courties, sympathy and liber-ality that have been everywhere, without cxception, displayed towards us. A very goodly portion of our building fund has been contributed by our broad-minded and arge-hearted non-Jewish fellow-citizens. We heartly appreciate this incontrovertible evidence of good-will on their part. It will surely strengthen the amicable relations between Jew and Gentile in all those works that tend to exait and ennoble. Monument for Judaism and Education.
