Scarcity of Farm Hands.

There is a great scarcity of farm hands in Ontario at the present time, according to the assistant secretary of the Ontario Emigration Department. Yesterday he had no less than 93 applications for help, which he is unable to fill. He thinks that if a thousand men came to him seeking positions with farmers he could place them all with in 24 hours. The wages offered are $20 to $25 per month for two or four months' engagement. Last year, for similar help the highest pay offered was $16 per month. New York, July 3.—A special to The Tel. 2358. in British Columbia, while it will mine its own coal.
