

London Advertiser.

(ESTABLISHED BY JOHN CAMERON IN 1883.)

Managing Director and Editor, John Cameron

London, Thursday, July 13, 1899.

Delighted With Canada.

Last autumn the Dominion Immigration Department invited several editorial associations of the Western States to visit the Canadian Northwest. The invitation met with a cordial acceptance from the newspaper fraternity, and several large excursion parties were taken through Manitoba, the Territories and British Columbia over the C. P. R. The result was a series of glowing accounts in hundreds of the newspapers of the Western States, descriptive of Canada and Canadian resources. These have proved of immense advantage to our immigration agents over the border.

A neat brochure has been issued, in which members of the Minnesota Editorial Association pithily record their impressions of the trip. We quote a few extracts, representative of the whole:

The longest, the best, the most enjoyable, the most valuable from an educational point of view, of any of our excursions. C. A. Bennett, Journal, Granite Falls.

Have seen a country of vast dimensions, of wonderful beauty and natural resources; have met a people of most generous hospitality. All this in a company, every one of whom seems a friend. Mrs. A. T. Anderson, Journal, Minneapolis.

The trip has deepened and strengthened by admiration and respect for the Canadian people, and broadened my ideas of the vast resources of North-western Canada. Martha Scott Anderson, Journal, Minneapolis.

I came, I saw and was conquered by the land of the Britons. May the two flags wave side by side in everlasting peace. H. J. Essler, Herald, St. Peter.

A concentration of more notable scenery and more agricultural lands than any ten days' outing in the world ever offered. H. P. Hall, Trade Journal, St. Paul.

My appreciation of this, the grandest and most satisfactory trip of my life so far, is only exceeded by my inability to crowd my sentiments concerning it into twenty words. W. S. Clay, Independent, Hutchinson.

Interesting and instructive. Railroad service unsurpassed. Scenery beautiful, beyond description. Healthful to all. Excellent country and lands for homeseekers. Canadians desirable associates. Pleasures indescribable. H. Hawley, Advance, Worthington, Minn.

It is beyond the power of mortal man to conceive of the beauty and grandeur of the mountains without first having seen them. M. L. Luby, Ariel, Minneapolis.

Most delightful trip in every way that I have ever taken. The scenery magnificent and the men extremely fine-looking and intelligent. Eva Blanchard, Times, Minneapolis.

The trip was a revelation of the wondrous possibilities of Western Canada. Chas. Vasaly, Herald, Little Falls.

The trip has proven the broadest education yet afforded the Minnesota Editorial Association. Mrs. C. W. Stanton, Press, Appleton.

The trip was a revelation. Every hour revealing some new beauty, grandeur of scenery, proverbial hospitality of the Canadian people. Walter F. Fifield, Minneapolis.

The endless prairies and the huge and rugged mountains beheld on this trip has revealed to the excursionists Canada's possibilities. Mrs. Ole E. Hagen, Fram, Crookston.

Delightful memories of Banff, the glacier, Victoria, Winnipeg, Brandon, Vancouver, Calgary, Seattle, and 500 miles of mountain scenery, will remain with me forever. Mrs. D. C. Lightbourne, Index, Ada, Minn.

The scenery was the grandest, the company formed of agreeable people, the weather perfect, while our reception along the entire route was the most cordial. Hugh S. Munroe, Sun, Morris.

The Canadians and their peerless Canadian Pacific Railroad have given us the grandest and best outing in the history of this association. W. M. James, Telegram, Breckenridge.

A beautiful, charming, delightful, elegant, friendly, glorious, happy, interesting, jolly, kindhearted, long, mountainous, new, orderly, pleasant, quick, restful, sumptuous trip. Mary L. Bolton, Gleaner, Plainview.

The trip has opened the eyes of the press of Minnesota to the extent and resources of Canada. Harry Basford, Register, Austin.

The whole trip has been beyond my greatest expectations, and has been delightful throughout. Daisy Currie, Pioneer, Currie.

The trip has taken us through the grandest country scenery and knit us more closely to the English nation. Mrs. W. W. Holmes, Times, Bellingham.

This trip, as an educator, is worth much more than a year's schooling at one of our best institutions of learning. Mrs. Carlos Avery, Leader, Hutchinson.

No scenery can compare with that of our neighbors' paradise. One of the grandest sights ever seen by man. Grandeur unsurpassed. All to be seen on the C. P.

Mrs. W. C. Masterman, Stillwater, Minn.

The trip is an important one in that it was through a foreign country and must have a broadening influence on all who took it, and enable them to view life with a broader vision. W. R. Estes, Messenger, Madella.

Supremely enjoyable and educative. Have seen a great country with broad prairies, extensive plains, beautiful cities, magnificent mountains, illustrious resources, whose people have lavished hospitality and good will upon us. George N. Lamphere, News, Moorhead.

The trip was a revelation of the scope and character of a grand domain, as rich in natural resources and in the grandeur of its scenery as great and full of promises. W. J. Munro, Sun, Morris.

The best, the most enjoyable trip ever taken; over the prairies and through mountains, a territory of almost unlimited resources. C. W. Wagner, Review, Litchfield.

A delightful trip, affording much pleasure and knowledge, the mountains and cities being especially interesting. The people were most hospitable. Miss G. Lamphere, News, Moorhead.

This trip has been one of great educational value, for it has taught us much of our Canadian neighbors, the resources of the country. The trip is indescribable. James Ruane, Gazette, Blayton.

Greatest and grandest ever taken; most pleasant and profitable. Best people on earth; Canada and Minnesota. "Rah for Canadian Pacific." W. E. Easton, Gazette, Stillwater.

Grand country, people, scenery and climate. Teaches patriotism and fraternity, makes us glad, broadens our and astonishes even an editor. H. E. Hoard, Leader, Montevideo.

In showing us an empire of rich agricultural country, beautiful and prosperous cities, mountains, canyons, glaciers, torrents and cascades, the great railroad admirably managed, the noble spirit of kinship in our Canadian neighbors—it has been the trip of a lifetime. W. B. Mitchell, St. Cloud.

It is hard to define our pleasant feelings at this moment, but above all, convinced of the superiority of Canadian men, we are ready at the first call to settle on Canadian soil. The Mitchell Twins (Misses), St. Cloud.

Can't be expressed in twenty words. Have written three columns already. Grand! Sublime! A revelation! L. H. McKinstry, Republican, Faribault.

The trip opened our eyes to the vastness of the country to the northward, surprising us with its resources, astounding us with its scenery. H. C. Hotelling, Blue Earth County Enterprise, Mapleton, Minn.

The Toronto Globe, under the heading, "Men of the Day," gives a pen sketch of Mrs. May Wright Sewall. Is this sarcasm or oversight?

The London Morning Post, referring to the street railway disturbance here, and the reading of the riot act, says the best answer to such aggressiveness must always be fixed bayonets. Somebody at this end of the cable has been stuffing the Post. Conciliation and arbitration will do more than fixed bayonets in a peaceable community like this.

The fact that the Marquis of Graham, eldest son of the Duke of Montrose, is serving before the mast on a sailing vessel with a view to qualifying, like Lord Brassey, for a master's certificate, has recalled the fate of the elder brother of the present Earl of Aberdeen, who shipped as a common sailor on a voyage from America to Australia. He went aloft on the night of Jan. 27, 1870, in a terrible storm, and was never seen again.

The Toronto News is much displeased with The Advertiser because it sees nothing vicious in Mr. Preston's hilarious telegram about "hugging the threshing machine." The News before preaching its little sermon should have recollected that no paper condemned the evil in West Elgin more strongly than did The Advertiser. We believe that corruption can be stamped out if the leaders of both parties will resolutely undertake the task. At the same time, we think it unfair to attach sinister meanings to Mr. Preston's slap-dash message, when no one but Mr. Preston understands it, not even Mr. Macnish, who received it. Better wait for Mr. Preston's explanation before maligning him.

NO WONDER. [Cleveland Plaindealer.] "She has a remarkable voice." "In what respect?" "In timbre." "No wonder. She used to call a logging camp to dinner."

A DINNER PILL. — Many persons suffer excruciating agony after partaking of a hearty dinner. The food partaken of is like a ball of lead upon the stomach, and instead of being a healing nutriment, it becomes a poison to the system. Dr. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are wonderful correctives of such troubles. They correct acidity, open the secretions and convey the food partaken of into healthy nutriment. They are just the medicine to take if troubled with indigestion.

BATTLE OF THE BOYNE

Celebrated in London Yesterday With Great Enthusiasm.

Largest Orange Parade Ever Held in This City.

Oratory, Music, Dancing and Sports at Queen's Park—An Orderly Gathering.

Nobody in London forgot for a moment yesterday that it was the Twelfth of July. Little knots of yellow in the buttonhole, a yellow tie, or a bit of yellow ribbon on a parasol, seemed almost universal, while thousands were gorgeously with broad yellow streamers, or rich regalia. Over 6,000 visiting Orangemen thronged the streets. The parade was the largest and finest Orange walk ever held in this city. Between 3,000 and 4,000 people were in line. There were many old men in the parade—some very old. And it was pleasant to watch the old eyes grow bright, the wavering step grow firm, and the bent back straighten as the feet kept time to the stirring music of fife and drum. That music was never still. Nearly every visiting lodge had its band, and from early morning till long after dark some of them were playing. The crowd at Queen's Park during the afternoon made it look like a big fair day. Fully 10,000 people were there.

THE ORANGE WALK.

The order of parade was as follows: S. Woods, P. D. M.

Twenty-first Battalion Band. Essex Young Britons, W. Lee master. Earl of Erin Lodge, No. 534, Windsor. Renwick Lodge, M. Edwards, master. Boyne Lodge, No. 209, M. Baldwin, master.

Fife and Drum Band. W. Riley Marshall. Lodge No. 762, Fred Millard, master. Hackett Lodge, No. 805, J. Murray, master.

Lodge No. 158, Leslie Robert, master. Stratford Fife and Drum Band, T. F. Roome, leader.

Stratford Lodge, No. 753, J. C. Dunserth, master.

Dexter Brass Band. Elgin Lodge, R. Parker, master. Watford Lodge, No. 1,820, R. Henry, master.

Seaford Lodge, No. 1,450, T. E. Handley, master.

Fife and Drum Band. Logan Lodge, No. 908, J. Thompson, master.

Woodham Fife and Drum Band. Woodham Lodge, No. 432, G. Cope-land, master.

Lodge No. 334, Blanchard, D. Boms, master.

Mitchell Brass Band. Mitchell Lodge, No. 334, W. White, master.

Lodge No. 518, St. Marys, J. W. Graham, master.

Lodge No. 591, Kirkton, Arch Robinson, master.

Kirkton Brass Band. Thamesford Lodge, No. 625, John Paynter, master.

Purple Hill Lodge, No. 817, H. Pardy, master.

Purple Hill Lodge, No. 707, Geo. Porter, master.

Fife and Drum Band. Glenwood Lodge, No. 1,335, Ed Fox-ton, master.

Mersea Lodge, No. 1,140, G. Imeson, master.

Ahoghill Lodge, No. 230, E. J. MacRobert, master.

Fife and Drum Band. Forest City Lodge, No. 11, A. McDon-ald, master.

Duke of York Lodge, No. 303, J. McGuffin, master.

Ingersoll Fife and Drum Band. Tilsonburg Lodge, No. 254, Oliver Pit-ter, master.

Fife and Drum Band. Bryanston Lodge, No. 792, F. R. Kes- tie, master.

Ridgetown Lodge, No. 906, W. Simp-son, master.

Fife and Drum Band. Thorndale Lodge, No. 248, H. Guest, master.

Fargo Lodge, No. 690, T. Siggart, mas- ter.

Chatham City Band. Northwood Lodge, No. 865, D. Crom- well, master.

Wabash Band. Thameswell Lodge, No. 464, R. Booth-roy, master.

Leamington Lodge, No. 563, J. Bell, master.

Bothwell Lodge, No. 197, Duncan Camp- bell, master.

Brantford Brass Band. Lodge No. 742, Brantford, W. Dawson, master.

Lodge No. 297, Brantford, W. Kitchen, master.

Lodge No. 307, Brantford, J. Lott-ridge, master.

George Hartley, director of ceremonies for county of Kent.

Petrolia Brass Band. Watford Lodge, No. 505, Geo. Kincaid, master.

Watford Fife and Drum Band. Thomas Newell, director for Lambton county.

Wanstead Lodge, No. 626, Isaac Hicks, master.

Watford Lodge, No. 1,629, Robt. Lucas, master.

Fife and Drum Band. Advance Lodge, No. 859, Davin, Hugh Carr, master.

Edward Neeley, county master of Kent.

Fife and Drum Band. Enniskillen Lodge, No. 687, A. Hark-ness, master.

Fife and Drum Band. 'Prentice Boys, Dawn Center, Alf Reid, master.

Cottam Lodge, No. 1,178, Stanley Bar-ber, master.

Essex Lodge, No. 655, E. Cook, master.

In carriages were the following: Hon. N. Clarke Wallace, M. P., most worshipful grand master of the grand lodge of British North America.

Mayor Wilson; County Master S. Clare, Middlesex; J. McDonald, county treasurer, Middlesex.

Ex-Mayor Essery; E. W. Hughes, Tilsonburg; T. Thompson, Brantford; and Ald. J. H. McConnell, Windsor.

Joseph A. Lee, Brantford, county master of Brant; Rev. R. McIntyre, Tempo; Ex-Mayor George Taylor; Robt. Drea-ney, past county master of Middle- sex; Rev. J. J. Haylock, deputy grand chaplain, Hamilton; R. Clare, North Dorchester, past county master.

Purple Star Lodge, 65 (ladies), Detroit; Mrs. Fletcher, lady mistress. Ex-Ald. Taylor, deputy master district No. 1; J. Savage, London, past, county master of Brant; Geo. Robinson, past master of L. O. L., No. 1,186.

Phone 1046

THE RUNIANS, GRAY, CARRIE CO. Phone 1046

In the interests of our salespeople we close the big store every Wednesday afternoon during July and August, and on their behalf request our customers to make their purchases, if possible, in the forenoon of that day.

Friday Bargains

As usual we present our list of Friday Bargains as far as space will permit. But it's impossible to advertise everything we've laid out for Friday's selling. The shrewd shopper will find many snags here on Friday that never get into the newspaper. Come early.

Whitewear, Blouses and Corsets

Muslin and Percale Blouses, detachable collars and cuffs, regular $1 and $1.25 each, Friday 50c
Percale, Muslin and Satene Blouses, detachable collars, regular $1.50 and $1.75 each, Friday 75c
Ladies' White Gowns, in fine white cotton, Empire style, trimmed with insertion and frills, special Friday 60c
Ladies' White Drawers, trimmed with deep frill of embroidery and tucks, very special, Friday 25c
Ladies' Odd Gowns—About a dozen left, were $1.25, $1.50 and $1.75, now $1.00, Friday 90c
Ladies' Corsets, in light gray satin, steel filled, extra long waist, special $1.00
Ladies' Cycling Corsets, in fawn satin, steel filling, gussets on hips, sizes 21 to 25, regular $1, Friday, till sold 60c
Ladies' Short-Hip Summer Corset, with double waist band, regular $1, Friday 60c

Hosiery and Gloves

10 dozen only, Ladies' Cotton Hose, double heel and sole, regular 15c a pair, Friday, 2 pairs for 15c
Ladies' Extra Fine Cotton Hose, Hermsdorf dye, double heel and sole, regular 20c a pair, 2 pairs for 25c
Ladies' Silk Plated Hose, our regular 50c line, very special Friday 29c
Ladies' Kid Gloves, in white, cream and pearl, heavily embroidered, 3 1/2 clasps, our regular price $1, Friday 73c

Smallwares

Fancy Black Velvet Belts, jeweled or plain, worth from 75c to $1.25, at, per dozen 49c
French Bristle Tooth Brushes, regular 25c, Friday 10c
Stamped Doilies, regular 10c and 15c each, Friday, for 5c

FRIDAY BARGAINS IN THE BASEMENT.

Special prices Friday for Red-path's Standard Granulated Sugar.
One crate Plain and White Cups, at, per dozen 35c
Ten-cent Ginger Snaps for 5c
2 Dozen Lemons (new fruit) for 25c
2 lb. Tin Tomato Catsup, equal four bottles, for 12c
1 Bottle Worcester Sauce for 9c, or 3 for 25c
40 Imperial Blend Black or Mixed Tea for 25c
Just arrived, our Import May Pick

Bud Japan Tea, sun cured 35c
36 only Imitation Cut Glass Half-Gallon Jugs; regular 50c each, for 25c
3 Crates Flow Blue Printed Ware, consisting of Cups, Saucers, Plates, Dinner and Tea Sets, at import prices.

The Runians, Gray, Carrie Co.

IMPORTERS,

208, 210, 210 1/2 and 212 DUNDAS STREET.

Montserrat

LIME FRUIT JUICE

No other brand of Lime Juice can compare with "Montserrat" for purity. It has many imitations but no equals. Some other brands have even gone so far as to collect old "Montserrat" bottles and fill them with their inferior article in order to get sale for it.

High class grocers everywhere sell and recommend "Montserrat" Lime Fruit Juice above all other brands. Always ask for "Montserrat."

Mount Brydges; D. J. Patterson, master Royal Black Preceptory, No. 346.

EX-Ald. James Fitzgerald; W. S. Everett, Thamesville.

AT THE PARK. Before the procession reached Queen's Park, a large crowd had assembled at the grand stand, where the speaking was to take place, and on the arrival of those in line the stands were quickly filled. There were in all nearly 8,000 people present, many of whom were unable to get within hearing of the speakers, and were diverted by the whiffles and the gentlemen of the cane-ring persuasion. One did a thriving business on the grounds.

THE SPEECHES. Mr. S. Clare, county master for East Middlesex, opened the meeting in a few well-chosen words.

Mayor Wilson delivered the address of welcome, in closing which he referred to the street car trouble, saying the parties to it were getting nearer and nearer to arbitration—something which should have been had months ago. With arbitration, justice would be done our citizens. On Thursday morning a very serious consultation would be held with the company and the men, and it was hoped the trouble would end.

Mr. E. T. Essery was warmly received. He eulogized Mr. Wallace, and said he should be kept in the chief chair, until the next crisis was over, no matter what the country might be. His name was a household word throughout the British Empire, without regard to color, creed or political proclivities. When the Manitoba question was before the people of Canada, Mr. Wallace was a member of the Government, and he had followed 55,000 a year, or stand by the Orange Order, and the principles it has always enunciated, and, like the British freeman that he is, he stood by his country, loyal to the order, and ready to sacrifice himself for the right; they should keep him there if they had to do so at the point of the bayonet. They asked no favors; they wanted no favors. They asked nothing but what every British subject was entitled to. They asked their rights; they asked that their children and the children of every person else should grow up side by side, should sit in the same benches in the same schools, should love the same laws and be judged by the same judges—and there were judges on the bench who did not believe in Orangism, but always acknowledged the law and laid it down as properly as any others. The country had a judiciary of which it was proud, a people the freest in the world, and if all her men in parliament were like Hon. N. C. Wallace, Canada would be king and her statesmen would be the best in the world.

The grand master, on rising, received an ovation. He dwelt with characteristic eloquence upon the historic occasions and characters uppermost in the minds of Orangemen yesterday, the recent struggles of the order, and its prospects. There was a time in Canada, he said, when one was almost compelled to apologize for being an Orangeman. They had, however, gone to the Parliament of Canada with the request for justice, and had demanded and obtained incorporation. Since then they had grown strong; they had no need to apologize now; they had asserted their right to live, in spite of those who misrepresented them. Three years ago, when their own political friends were going away from the paths which Orangemen believed in, the latter had not been afraid to warn them, and today, he claimed, the political party in power at Ottawa, warned, it was true, but only to a certain extent, by the history of the past, was more than content with the Church of Rome. The pope was sending a delegate to Canada on a requisition signed by members of parliament, to assist in regulating their affairs. "If he is coming to attend solely to the affairs of the church," said Mr. Wallace, "we will have nothing to do with it. But I can tell him, and those who sent for him, that if he attempts to interfere with the political affairs of the Dominion of Canada, we will teach him a lesson. We will let him and those who sent for him know that we can govern ourselves, and will not be dictated to."

Rev. Robert McIntyre, of Tempe, spoke briefly, in a happy vein, and was heartily applauded. Mr. Peter Husted, of Tilbury, favored with an Orange song.

Rev. Mr. Haylock, of Chatham, predicted that his cousin, Hon. N. Clarke Wallace, would yet be prime minister. He was born to rule, he said. The speaker had known him from a boy, and never knew him to do a mean thing.

Rev. Mr. Brown, of Delaware, believed in the great liberty and freedom which Orangism offered everyone. They had brethren of whom they were ashamed, and who made mistakes, they also had brethren of whom they were not ashamed, and who did not make mistakes. (Applause.) The platform upon which they stood was the unadulterated word of God.

Mr. Lowrie, of St. Marys, also spoke briefly, and extended an invitation to the Orange lodges to join in the celebration at St. Marys next year.

GAMES AND SPORTS. Musical and dancing contests, a baby show and a number of races followed the speeches, and furnished splendid entertainment.

Four bands entered in the fife and drum band competition. Ahoghill, No. 230, London, won first by 18 points; Petrolia, No. 1,095, second, Dexter, No. 880, and Brantford, No. 742, were tied for third place, but the prize was awarded to Dexter, Brantford refusing to play off the tie. The judges were W. E. Hiscott, John Savage and Joseph Murray, all of London.

For best appearance in parade—1 Hackett, No. 805, city; 2, L. O. L. No. 492, Woodham; 3, No. 230, Ahoghill, London.

The most amusing feature of the day was the baby show. First prize was awarded to Dorothy Pinkham, second to Franklin Walker, third to Alfred Martin. Ald. Carrothers and Douglass were the judges. There were over a dozen entries, and the judges had their hands full in trying to explain the decision after the prizes had been awarded.

Orangemen's race, 100 yards—1 Walter Taylor, London; 2 Wm. Miller, Kirkton; 3 Michael Brethour, Woodham.

Fat Orangemen's race—1 G. H. Lott-ridge, Oshweagan; 2 Geo. Mann, Purple Hill; 3 Joseph Murray, London.

Irish jig—1 Ina Riddell, 1 Florence Small, 2 Joseph Grayson, 3 Josephine Grayson also received a special prize of $4 for her proficiency.

Highland fling—1 Ina Riddell, 1 Florence Small, 2.

Mr. A. Jamieson, of St. Marys, was adjudged the oldest Orangeman on the grounds. He has passed his 81st birthday and is very robust and hearty. He walked in the procession from the market square to the grounds. Mr. Jamieson has been a member of the Orange Order for 73 years.