in This City.

Richard Butler, one of the deans of Richard Butler, one of the deans of Canadian journalism, and associated 70 years ago with the birth of London's second journalistic child, is visiting relatives in the city.

Mr. Butler commenced to learn his trade as a printer in this city 70 years ago. He later went to the United States and served in the Civil War, and after conducting a newspaper for some after conducting a newspaper for some time in Ohio, he went to Hamilton as American consular agent. For 20 years he has been writing a weekly column of musings for the Hamilton Spectator, and he has given the city a local historical records.

MAY INCREASE RATES TO $10, SAYS BOARD Refuses Permission for Discriminatory

Charge Requested.

Subscribers of the Byron Telephone Company will pay $10 per year in future. The application of the company to increase its rates was heard by the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board this morning at the county court house. D. M. McIntyre, K.C., chairman, and A. B. Ingram, vice-chairman, conducted the hearing. F. Dagger, the board's telephone expert, was also present, W C. Coo was the official stenographer. Crown Attorney J. B. McKillop presented the case for the company.

department today by the master of the steamer. He said that two shells were observed to hit the submersible, which sank after a "terrific explosion."

VETERAN NEWSPAPERMAN

The board refused to allow the company to give its subscribers, who are shareholders, a rate of $8 and the non-shareholders a rate of $10, as it thought this would be discriminating. The $10 rate was made for all, with the idea that the shareholders would receive that the shareholders would receive that the shareholders would receive the shareholders. yearly rental. Subscribers on special lines will be allowed connection with the Bell Telephone lines for a yearly rate of $25, but this can only be done in Richard Butler G. A. LAID OVER AGAIN

Committee Does Not Deal With Street Railway Question. and he has given the city a local historical record which is regarded as having an unusual value.

Mr. Butler has many recollections of the London of 70 years ago, and while he has made only one or two visits to the city since leaving here, his memories are pleasant, and at 84 years of age he is one of the most vigorous men, physically and mentally, to be found among those who have passed the three score mark. He wears the button of G. A. R., and as a Canadian-born feels proud of the wonderful showing being made by the United States at the present time. Mr. Butler will be in the city for several days, and hopes to have an interesting time at the Western

Fair.

Hallway Question.

The council at its last meeting decided that the matter of enforcing the engineer's order to the street railway to restore the service should be referred back to the finance committee for consideration without explanation laid the matter over until a special meeting to be held some time in the future.

It is to be noted that the council passed a motion to the effect that Manager King should be instructed that the matter would be up at the next meeting of the committee, and that he should be there. Mr. King was not present at the meeting this morning.

MAKING YOUR WILL One is a pleasure and the other a duty you owe to your family and those whom you wish to benefit. You have worked hard to acquire property, and if it is to be frittered away by your heirs why not do it yourself? But if you want your Estate to be conserved then you should name this Company as your Executor and Trustee in your Will. Hundreds of Estates have been impaired by individual Executors, who neither had the technical knowledge required for making investments or the necessary training for the safe-guarding of Estates. The ample Capital of the Company and the experience of its Officers insure absolute protection.
