Wisconsin Senator Answers Disloyalty Charges by Pleading Right to Criticize War Policy.

Washington, Oct. 6.—Chief interest in the closing hours of congress' war ses-sion centree Saturday in senate discus-sion of disloyalty charges against Sen-ator Robert M. La Foilette. The Wisconator Robert M. La Follette. The Wisconsin senator had prepared a lengthy speech in defence of his public utterances, and in reply to critics.

The senate, with its legislative decks cleared and the end of the session fixed for 3 c'clock this afternoon, met early today for what was generally expected to be a dramatic finish. La Follette was given three hours, beginning at 10 o'clock, in which to address the senate, with the two hours remaining before adjournment divided between senators who wishment divided between senators who wish ed to reply.

In his speech La Follette based his defence on the right of members of con-gress to assail the policy of the govern-ment, and dwelt at length upon the constitutional duty of congress, rather than the president, to proclaim the nation's urposes in taking up arms.
