

REPORT OF THE CLARA WILKES CURRIE MEMORIAL FUND.

In the March issue of the Canadian Independent a statement appeared to the effect that a Ladies' Missionary Society in a certain church, which was not named, had $15.00 which it would like to put into a school house in Africa to be erected in memory of Mrs. Currie, the news of whose death had recently been received. Enquiries being made of the American Board by the Foreign Secretary of the C. C. F. M. S. it was found that such a school house could be erected at Bailundu, where Mrs. Currie died, for $500 and that it was much needed. It was, therefore, decided by the President that an appeal should be made to the ladies of the churches to raise this sum before the Annual meeting in June, and the following ladies were appointed secretary-treasurers for the different provinces: Miss Hattie Wisner, of Brantford, for Ontario; Mrs. G. Robertson, of Melbourne, for Quebec; and Mrs. C. H. Dearborn, of St. John, N.B., for the Lower Provinces.

The idea of a Canadian memorial in Africa to our beloved missionary, which had been suggested by the society in Edgar, Ont., was eagerly received everywhere, and it soon became evident that the amount was likely to exceed the sum which had been named. When the results were brought in at the annual meeting, great enthusiasm was felt, especially as it was perceived that there would probably be enough to erect a second school house in whatever part of the field might hereafter be deemed most suitable.
