SANTA CLAUS AT OAK HALL SATURDAY MORNING

A letter that will be of great interest to children has just been received by the Oak Hall Boys' Shop from Santa Claus. He tells them that if Saturday is a fine day he intends coming to the city on the Sussex train arriving at the station at 9 o'clock, and after a look around will be at the Oak Hall Boys' Shop from 9:30 to 10:30, when he wants to meet all the boys and girls under ten years of age. Oak Hall have accepted his kind offer and will turn the Boys' Shop over to him Saturday morning.

A Gentleman of Leisure.

Moncton Transcript.—Accused of vagrancy some time ago, and with annoying local hotel men, etc., and given two months or $20 fine before His Honor Judge Steeves, an outsider, so accused and sentenced, will be taken to Dorchester tomorrow to serve two months in the county jail. The accused at the time of his hearing said he had worked four months out of the year and but four hours on those days on which he felt like working.
