

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

THE OPERA HOUSE

Mme. Clifford's Last Appearance
Tonight—Tomorrow's Fine New Programme
Tonight will be the last performance to be given by Mme. Clifford at the Opera House. If you have not had an opportunity to see her in a question about business or love—anything relating to past, present or future, this will be your last chance. Usual two performances tonight, at 7.30 and 9.

The new change of bill opening tomorrow afternoon offers Gualtero and Marguerita in an Italian musical comedy; Aubrey and Riche, variety dancing offering; Pat O'Rourke, character comedian; Work and Kelt, in a novel skit introducing eccentric dancing, songs and sentimental acrobatic work; Tom Dempsey, singer and funny fellow; and the ninth chapter of the serial, "The Iron Test." The matinee tomorrow starts at 3 o'clock.

GREAT FIRE PICTURE AT THE UNIQUE TONIGHT

Our fathers and our father's fathers will remember the cold chills which crept up their spines when they witnessed for the first time this great dramatic thriller on the stage, but the younger generation have a far greater treat in store for them during the engagement of this photoplay at the Unique Theatre, where it is being presented for the first time as a photoplay offering with all the latitude which has placed the screen so far superior to the stage in the presentation of spectacular dramatic offerings. Regular admission. Matinee, children, 5-10. Evening, children 10; adults 15.

DOES CHARITY ALWAYS PAY?

To see the feature at the Star Theatre this evening is to learn the truth regarding "Charity." The picture is "The Mantle of Charity," featuring Marguerita Fisher. The solution of the picture shows that one victim out of three is really deserving. The sixth chapter of "The Wolves of Keltor" shows the escape from the burning building. How does Bob rescue Leah? Tonight's show is exceptionally good; be sure to see it.
