

HAPPY KIDDES MARCH TO TRAIN FOR PICNIC DAY

Little Ones of St. Peter's and Holy Trinity Make Fine Showing

It was an attractive and jolly parade of boys and girls seen marching from St. Peter's church this morning at 10 o'clock to the Union Depot where they entered for the annual combined picnic of St. Peter's and Holy Trinity Sunday schools. Not in many years was there such a large number in line as today, it was said by observers.

Headed by the City Cornet Band the parade lined up in front of St. Peter's church and to the tune of music marched joyfully through the streets to the station. They presented a neat and happy appearance and the parade was the object of general admiring comment.

With ideal picnic weather prevailing, large numbers were expected to visit the grounds this afternoon and early evening. Early reports were that many had already gone out and a big rush was looked for at the supper hour. Energetic committees were ready on the grounds and everything was ready when the kiddies arrived.

Rev. Peter Castello, C. S. S. R. and Rev. Austin McGuire, C. S. S. R. led the boys in this morning's procession while Rev. Fathers Hill and O'Hara, C. S. S. R., had charge of the girls.

I. WILLIAMS HOLDS SESSION OF COURT

Magistrate is at Falls. Three Cases Are Before Court

In the absence of Magistrate Henderson, who is attending the funeral today in connection with the start of operations at Grand Falls, I. Williams, police court clerk, and sitting stipendiary magistrate, presided in the Police Court this morning.

One man for drunkenness was fined $5 or two months in jail.

William Fuddington, local taxi man, was reported by James Miller, C. P. R. policeman, for collecting passengers from the S. S. Empress while standing within the rail. One of his drivers appeared in answer to the charge, but the stipendiary magistrate ordered that a summons be issued for Fuddington's appearance in person.

A case against John Dwyer, on charge of using abusive language to his wife, was dismissed for lack of prosecution when his wife failed to appear to testify against him.

WEST ANTI-MEIGHEN DECLARES DUNNING

Former Minister of Railways Addresses Meeting at Pembroke, Ont.

PEMBROKE, Ont., Aug. 10.—"What ever the West is, it is anti-Meighen," declared the Hon. J. A. Dunning, former Minister of Railways and Canals, in opening here last night, his Ontario tour. The people of Western Canada, were coming to realize that the questions on which they were divided, were insignificant, as compared with the major questions on which they were united. Accordingly one of the most pleasant things from a liberal standpoint, during this election, was the way the forces in the West are getting together and avoiding three-cornered fights in the constituencies on the prairies.

Drops Eggs Safely With Parachute

The crate of eggs, above, heaved overboard from an airplane 1,200 feet up, landed neatly in the centre of a field and not an egg was broken. Of course, a parachute attached to the crate may have had something to do with it. The aerial "horror" and egg men performed the experiment at Curtis Field, Long Island, using an ordinary crate with no special protection for the eggs. Photos show the crate landing and then examining the eggs.

CHARLES BRYANT SEVERELY HURT AT REFINERY

Falls From Sugar Pile and Fracture of Skull Feared

Charles Bryant, St. James street, was seriously injured this morning while at work in the Atlantic Sugar Refinery when he fell from the top of a pile of raw sugar.

The accident happened about 9.30 while he was piling bags of sugar. His fellow employees picked up the injured man and he was conveyed to the General Public Hospital for treatment.

It is feared that he may have sustained a fractured skull in addition to the bad shaking up received in the fall, but this remained undetermined awaiting an X-ray report.

BANDITS GET $1,114 FROM PAYMASTER

Armed Pair Jump From Auto and Effect Daring Holdup

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—Two bandits held up George Westcott, paymaster of the Clinker Tire Company, as he was about to enter the company's office at East New York and Utica Avenue, Brooklyn, the other day and carried two weeks' salary.

The armed pair escaped in an automobile driven by a third man.

The paymaster drew the money from the Clinker Exchange Bank at Bedford Avenue and Fulton street, Brooklyn, shortly after 11 o'clock and was driven to the factory by one of the company's salesmen. As they drove up to the office they were stopped at the curb. Two men jumped out of the parked car, drew revolvers and demanded that Westcott surrender his money. The paymaster handed over a brown paper package containing the pay roll.

The two men walked swiftly to the parked car and drove away by their companion. Westcott described the trio as about 37 years of age and well dressed. Detectives from the Liberty Avenue police station were sent out to look for the robbers.

VICTIM OF HOLD-UP IS DEAD OF WOUND

Charge Against Two N. Y. Suspects Raised From Assault to Homicide

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—Cecil Linderman, of 924 Columbus Avenue, driver for the Reid Ice Cream Company, who was shot July 28 during a hold-up of a company's plant, at 141st street and Fifth Avenue, died Saturday in Harlem Hospital. His death resulted in changing the charges against two men arrested after the hold-up from felonious assault to homicide.

The five bandits involved in the hold-up got $12,000 in cash and checks. As they were escaping they met Linderman entering the plant, unaware of what had happened, and one of them shot him in the abdomen. From the time Linderman was taken to the hospital physicians had no hope for his recovery.

One of the men charged with homicide when Linderman died was "Mike" McKenna, who was paroled from prison July 15, after serving half of a five-year term for burglary. He was arrested in the office of the Parole Board, Fifty-first street and Madison Avenue, on July 30.

McKenna had come to the office to report that his conduct had been good since he was paroled. When four detectives walked up to him he whipped a pistol from his right coat pocket, but before he could fire it was twisted from his hand.

McKenna was taken to Harlem Hospital to be identified by Linderman, who remained conscious until a few hours before his death. When the driver saw McKenna being led by detectives to his bed, he exclaimed: "On my dying oath that's the man that plugged me."

The other prisoner held in connection with the hold-up is Peter Powers, who was captured at Third Avenue and 122nd street when a touring car in which the five bandits were occupying crashed into a fire hydrant.

LEADERSHIP SEEN NEEDED IN BRITISH INDUSTRIAL CRISIS

Lack of and Insight is Blamed in Prolonged Coal Dispute

LONDON, Aug. 9.—Politicians have long recognized the necessity of leadership, apart from measures, if a party is to prosper.

Nothing new is heard of the old cry "Measures Not Men." The cry when it was first raised was really an apology for the mediocrities in charge of the party. Probably in the near future the great trades unions will recognize the necessity of electing as their leaders men who besides other qualities have the gifts of leadership and insight, and the same rule should apply also to employers' associations.

BODIES WORK TOGETHER

It is an interesting fact that those unions whose employers' organizations whose chiefs are gifted with political and industrial sagacity work together on the most harmonious terms even in the present difficult conditions. The railwaymen and the companies, the engineers, men and masters, and employees and employers in the various trades and industries which combine to form the shipbuilding industry are at peace with one another, and the prolongation of the coal strike is forcing people to ask to what extent the leadership on both sides is responsible for the protracted strike.

COOK IS FANATIC

There is a feeling that if J. H. Thomas had been representing the miners and Sir Guy Graney and Sir Herbert Walker the mine owners, a settlement would have been reached long ago. The trouble is that Mr. Cook is a fanatic and Herbert Smith, a blunt honest Yorkshireman, has no vision and no complete grasp of the technical conditions of the industry, while it cannot be said that any outstanding figure speaks on behalf of the mine owners. The difficulties for both sides have, of course, been great and can be appreciated, but the conviction seems growing among an impatient public that better leadership on both sides would long ago have brought about a settlement.

FORMER SAINT JOHN MAN ENDS HIS LIFE

William Thompson Dies of Bullet Wound in Fredericton—Was Letter Carrier

FREDERICTON, Aug. 9.—William Thompson, aged 37 years, a letter carrier employed by the Fredericton post office, committed suicide between 8 and 10 o'clock here tonight in the garden in the rear of his home, 120 St. John street, by shooting himself with a Winchester rifle.

Dependancy and financial worry are supposed to have been the motive. He leaves a wife, formerly Miss Sears of this place, and a young child, and is thought to have relatives there. James Fenety, proprietor of Times garage, situated near the Thompson home, heard the shot and rushed to the scene. Thompson's head was practically blown off.

Thompson enlisted here in 1914 with the 12th Battalion. He was transferred to the 1st Montreal Battalion (The Black Watch) and saw four years' service with them at the front.

Cloudburst Renders Hundreds Homeless

AGRAM CROTA, Aug. 10.—A cloudburst of tremendous proportions has caused great damage in the western part of this city. Bridges over the river have collapsed under the rush of flood waters. A number of large buildings, including the custom house, are submerged.

Hundreds of persons have been driven from their homes, but there are no reports of casualties.

"COMFORT WAGE" URGED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—A "minimum comfort wage" for every worker is urged by the Federal Council of Churches in a Labor message rushing forth the stand of the churches of America in the industrial sphere. "The church stands for the principle that the least charge upon industry must be at least a minimum comfort wage," the message said.

RETURNING TO B. C.

FREDERICTON, Aug. 9.—Mrs. Beverly M. King, who has been spending the past few days in South Devon with her brother, Gilbert Henry, left this morning for Moncton where she will spend two days with Mrs. E. W. Gilvan before leaving for her home at Baynes Lake, B. C.

Wilford Spencer, nine years of age, a son of Mrs. Mary Spencer, 54 St. John street, who was reported as having disappeared from his home last night, returned this morning all right.

Harvest Trains Are Away To West

The annual fall exodus of harvest hands to the west has commenced and at 10:10 o'clock this morning the first harvest train pulled out of the Union depot over the tracks of the Canadian Pacific Railway. The train was made up of 16 colonist cars, one baggage and one lunch counter car and carried 800 harvesters from Saint John and places east of here. A second train will leave this afternoon at 8:45 o'clock and carry about the same number of passengers and it is possible that a train will leave late tonight.

WEDDINGS

CORAM-HAWKES

A quiet and pretty wedding took place at 8.30 o'clock last evening at the Victoria street Baptist parsonage when Rev. E. R. MacWilliam, pastor of the Victoria street Baptist church, officiated in marriage Miss Nina Hawkes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Hawkes, Chesley street, to Cecil Roy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Coram, 105 Guilford street, West Saint John.

Her sister, looked very becoming in a white silk dress with hat, shoes and veil. The bride and groom were accompanied by their parents and a large number of friends. The wedding was a long and happy one. Mr. and Mrs. Coram will reside in this city.

PROVINCES IN WEST FOUND VERY SECTIONAL

ing the administration of education and public health. He found that excellent and equitable systems of equalling assessment had been devised and put into effect.

SECTIONAL IN OUTLOOK

If his information is of value in this province it may be obtained. The prairie provinces were found by Dr. Kierstead to be extremely sectional in their outlook. They considered the interests of Ontario and Montreal, which they term eastern Canada, as antagonistic to their own. When informed by Dr. Kierstead that their view was very similar to that taken by many people in the Maritime Provinces the Westerners remarked that probably the reasons were the same. Dr. Kierstead observed a deep-seated dissatisfaction with the banking institutions of Canada. This dissatisfaction was not only with the administration of the banks conducted at present, but also with their constitution. There was an expression of opinion that there was too great Ontario and Montreal influence.

GRAIN GROWERS PROFITS

In connection with the grain trade, Dr. Kierstead took occasion to impress upon those who heard his lectures that notwithstanding the enormous distances grain had to be transported, the power of each dollar which the grain finally brought in the market. For no so great a proportion of the cost to the consumer.

Dr. Kierstead attended many distinguished gatherings. At Vancouver the anniversary of Confederation was observed at a dinner at which the chief speaker was Sir J. A. M. Aikens, Lieutenant Governor of Manitoba. At Winnipeg Dr. Kierstead was guest of honor at a banquet given by the Alumni of the University of New Brunswick. Dr. Frank Allen, professor of physics at the University of Manitoba, was chairman. Prof. Allen attended the U. N. B. when Chancellor Jones and Dr. Kierstead were under graduates. Dr. Allen was formerly principal of the Sheldale Superior School. He is a brother-in-law of D. W. Hayer, manager of the Provincial Bank of Canada at Saint John.

Lord Chesham Sells Burlington Arcade

LONDON, Aug. 10.—The Burlington Arcade, which runs off Piccadilly and is one of the most famous shopping thoroughfares in the world, has been sold by Lord Chesham. The name of the buyer and the price paid were not announced.

Originally it was a lane leading to Burlington House, the home of Lord Burlington, but that nobleman more than 100 years ago became so vexed because pedestrians threw rubbish along the way that he built the arcade.

What You Want Marcus Ltd. Have

Shopping from one place to another—especially so important a purchase as Furniture—is rather tedious, takes time.

Perhaps fatigue may force you to accept something that does not exactly fit your ideas, while all the time the very article itself holds a prominent place in the larger displays of J. Marcus Ltd.

Save your shopping steps—you'll find that everything there is to see is shown by the largest Furniture firm in the Maritime Provinces.

The methods of doing business that have built their patronage into the largest of all serve you as you cannot otherwise be served. A selection of overwhelming completeness—smaller prices provided by bigger buying power—unequalled guarantees—a reputation to back them up—and singular good taste.
