"I wish to make a statement under oath."

The accused, B-623031, Pte. Samuel FULLER, N.R.M.A., "P" Recruit, attached A-19 C.A.S.C., T.O., C.A., Camp Borden, Ontario, having been duly sworn, states:

"I am B-623031, Samuel FULLER. I was called up under N.R.M.A., 1940, on July 30th, 1942. While in the army I was always getting the devil for not saluting Officers. I didn't sleep well at night, because of bad kidneys. I had to get up three or four times every night, and it made me very tired. The week end of October 25th, 1942, I got a pass and went to my home in Dorset, Ontario. I took sick with quinzey and did not return to camp when my leave was over. When I felt better again, I was afraid to go back to camp because I had been gone so long. I went to Toronto for a month and then I spent three or four months trapping. In March, 1943 my brother died. During the time I was away from the Army I was in uniform most of the time, or else I took my uniform and equipment with me."
