as Bathurst psople do not often have the opportunity to hear such artists, there is no doubt the hall will be packed.

The town is quiet and the school question a very very "old chestnut."

James Blair's Case.

NAPANEE, April 10th. A highly interesting case has happened in this town, which is creating a good deal of excitement. Mr. James Blair, a well-known merchant tailor here, has for fourteen years been a sufferer from that terrible complaint, known as Bright's disease of the kidneys. He suffered so terribly that one hour's work at the outting table would completely exhaust him, and he had to almost give up work attogether. He tried almost every known remedy for his complaint, but without any good results. Medical men and patent medicines failed him, and he was gradually gesting worse every day. Finally he safe francis Cassidy.
